

JDR Mask Update

By: The Honorable D. Scott Bailey, Chief Judge

VIRGINIA
JUVENILE AND DOMESTIC RELATIONS DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE 31 ST JUDICIAL DISTRICT
SPECIAL CONTINUING ORDER FOR OPERATIONS

This Order reflects the Court's operations from April 4, 2022, until further order, while continuing to recognize the need to protect the health and safety of court employees, litigants, attorneys, judges and the general public; accordingly.

IT IS ORDERED THAT THE REQUIREMENT OF MASKING in the JDR hallways, offices and courtrooms be lifted effective April 4, 2022. Any party, attorney or witness before the court may wear a mask if they so choose. All other health safety measures, such as social distancing and the like, should continue to be followed to the greatest extent practicable. Courtroom attendance will continue to be restricted, and attorneys should advise their clients of the same. Each judge reserves the right to require masking in the courtroom in individual cases should the number of participants and the size of the courtroom raise health concerns. Entered this First day of April 2022.
