INTRODUCTION

These Guidelines are the result of the collaborative effort of the Prince William Circuit Court, the Prince William Circuit Court Clerk, and the Prince William County Bar Association. We are fortunate that these groups have a unique relationship that enabled them to work together to generate these Guidelines.

Changes in the nature of the practice in Circuit Court and new statutes necessitated review and updating of the old Timesavers Guidelines. It is hoped that these Guidelines provide more information and will be easily amended as changes occur. New sections such as Technology, Security, Library Resources, Interpreters, PWCBA, and Judges' Chambers have been added [and it is expected that more will be added]. The purpose of these Guidelines is to provide counsel and pro se parties with a resource to help with practice and participation in the Circuit Court. The guidelines are not intended to provide all of the information needed to handle a case in Court or to conduct other business in the Court. These Guidelines are not, and should not, be misinterpreted as a substitute for the Rules of the Supreme Court of Virginia or the Code of Virginia.

SECTION A: CIRCUIT COURT JUDGES' CHAMBERS PRACTICE GUIDELINES

(Adopted June 2023)

www.pwcgov.org/government/courts/circuit/pages/default.aspx

1.00 JUDGES' CHAMBERS OFFICE INFORMATION

The Circuit Court Judges' Chambers Office is located on the third floor of the Judicial Center. The Chambers Office is open from Monday through Friday 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

2.00 JUDGES

The Honorable Kimberly A. Irving (Chief Judge)

The Honorable Carroll A. Weimer, Jr.

The Honorable Tracy C. Hudson

The Honorable James A. Willett

The Honorable Angela L. Horan

The Honorable Petula C. Metzler

The Honorable Robert P. Coleman

3.00 COMMUNICATIONS WITH A JUDGE (EX PARTE)

Ex parte communication with a Judge is strictly prohibited. "Ex Parte" is a Latin phrase meaning "on one side only; by or for one party." Ex parte communication occurs when a party or other individual interested in a case talks with, writes to, or otherwise communicates directly with the judge about issues in a case without the other party's knowledge.

The Rules of the Supreme Court of Virginia do not permit ex parte communication from any party or other interested individual to a Judge.

4.00 PRETRIAL CONFERENCES

All counsel must attend the Pretrial Conference in person unless excused for hardship by a Judge of this Court. In all contested domestic relations cases, the parties must also attend the conference in person unless excused for hardship by a Judge of this Court. More information on Pretrial Conferences can be found in Section D 4.03 and Section E 5.02.

5.00 TESTING IT EQUIPMENT

Contact Judges' Chambers to arrange a day and time, prior to your trial, to test your audiovisual equipment/laptop and/or thumb drive to make sure the settings meet your desired needs with our courtroom equipment.

Testing your equipment is highly recommended because proceedings will not be delayed for technical difficulties. Counsel are strongly advised to have a backup plan in the event the monitors do not function with your device(s). Contact chambers at 703-792-6171.

6.00 REQUESTING REMOTE HEARINGS

For Friday Civil Motion's Day, all hearings are to be done in person. Any emergency requests to appear virtually, such as for a Covid-19 diagnosis, should be brought to the attention of the presiding Judge, via their Law Clerk or Chambers who may handle the request as she or he sees fit.

For virtual testimony in civil trials, the Court will be following the procedures outlined in a Virginia Supreme Court Rule 1:27. All requests to have a witness appear virtually shall be docketed for a Friday Motion's Day prior to the date of trial to be addressed by a Judge of this Court.

Civil Term Day will be done in person absent an emergency and express approval by a Judge of the Court. Pretrial Conferences are to remain in-person.

All these resources and more are available through www.pwcba.org.

SECTION D: CIVIL PRACTICE GUIDELINES
(Adopted June 2023)

1.00 FILING CIVIL SUITS AND OTHER CIVIL PLEADINGS

1.01 Where to File:

All pleadings which require a payment of fees or costs, such as instituting a civil suit, summons for garnishments, etc., are to be filed in Room 314 during the Clerk's Office's cashier hours of 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday-Friday. Motions not requiring payment of fees may be filed at the same location until 5:00 p.m.

1.02 Civil Action Cover Sheet:

All initial filings should be submitted with a Cover Sheet For Filing Civil Actions (Appendix Form D-1 Cover Sheet For Filing Civil Actions (Form CC-1416)).

1.03 Signatures and Proof of Filing:

Please verify that all pleadings have been signed by counsel of record and contain the appropriate party addresses. Every pleading, motion or other paper filed shall contain at the foot, the following information of the counsel of record submitting the document: Name of counsel, Name of firm, if different, Virginia State Bar Number, office address, telephone number of counsel of record, and any electronic mail (email) and facsimile (fax) number regularly used for business purposes by counsel of record. (Rule 1.4 of the Va. Supreme Court Rules)

It is strongly suggested that an extra copy of each pleading filed in a case be provided to the Clerk at the time of filing, if filed in person, so that the Clerk can provide a file-stamped copy to counsel for his/her records. Counsel who file by mail and wish to have a file-stamped copy returned to them must provide a self-addressed stamped envelope with the mailed filing. Please note copies are file-stamped on the back of the last page.

1.04 Filing and Service Fees:

Please note that checks for all filing fees should be made payable to the Clerk of Circuit Court. Filing fees are separate and distinct from applicable service fees to the Sheriff, but the Sheriff's service fee may be included in the check made payable to the Clerk of Circuit Court, so that only one check need be provided. Please verify that all checks are signed. The Clerk's Office will accept checks, cash, credit cards, and money orders.

1.05 Assignment of New Cases:

New civil cases are randomly assigned to a Judge when they are filed. Subject to availability, the assigned Judge hears all motions in the case, enters any agreed orders in the case, and may ultimately be the trial Judge if the case continues through to trial. If the assigned Judge has heard significant motions in the case or has otherwise been particularly involved in pretrial proceedings, every effort is made to assign that Judge for trial.

2.00 SERVICE OF PROCESS

Please note: the following is a general overview of Clerk's Office procedures relating to service of process. Service requirements are statutorily mandated and attorneys should satisfy themselves that all service requirements applicable to any particular case have been met. Information is also available at www.pwcva.gov/service-process.

2.01 Service of Process Request Form:

If pleadings require service, a Prince William County Service of Process Request Form must also be filed indicating what method of service will be used and the name(s) and address(es) of the person(s) to be served. (Appendix Form D-2 Prince William County Service of Process Request). Please provide the correct number of service copies, together with a check or checks sufficient to pay all filing and service fees.

2.02 Service by Sheriff in Virginia:

Service by Virginia Sheriff requires an original pleading plus one copy for each defendant to be served. In general, original process to be served by the Sheriff of Prince William County will be forwarded to the Sheriff's Department by the Clerk's Office within 48 hours of the filing of the pleadings. The Clerk's Office also processes any pleadings which must be served by the Sheriff of another county or city in Virginia and forwards the pleadings to the Sheriff of the indicated jurisdiction. The Sheriff's Department Civil Service phone number is 703-792-6070. Service returns are logged in the Sheriff's Office a few days before the Clerk's Office receives them. To determine status you can access the Sheriff's System at www.pwcgov.org/civildatabase.

2.03 Service by Private Process:

When filing pleadings to be served by private process, the Clerk's Office will notify counsel by phone/e-mail when the process is ready for pick-up. (Appendix D-3 Service Other Than By Virginia Sheriff) (Form CC-1407).

2.04 Additional Forms of Service:

Service on the Secretary of the Commonwealth requires two copies of the pleading and two copies of the Affidavit for Service of Process on the Secretary of the Commonwealth (Appendix Form D-4) (Form CC-1418).

2.05 Service on Clerk of State Corporation Commission

Service on the Clerk of the State Corporation Commission requires two copies of the pleading along with three copies of the Service of Process, Notice, Order or Demand of the Clerk of the State Corporation Commission as Statutory Agent form (Appendix Form D-5 Service of Process, Notice, Order or Demand on the Clerk of the State Corporation Commission as Statutory Agent (Form SOP-19.1) and instructions). A separate check must be filed and made payable to the State Corporation Commission for service.

2.06 Service on Commissioner of DMV

Service on Commissioner of DMV requires three copies of the pleading and three copies of an Affidavit of Residency (if affidavit is required) (Appendix Form D-6 Affidavit for Service of Process on the Virginia Department of Motor Vehicles – Motor Vehicle Accident). A separate check must be filed and made payable to the Department of Motor Vehicles.

2.07 Service by Order of Publication

An Order of Publication (Appendix Form D-7) (Form CC-1434) may be entered when an Affidavit (Appendix Form D-8) (Form CC-1435) is filed in a case alleging certain grounds, including but not limited to: non-residency; inability to determine the Defendant's location after the use of due diligence; or inability of the Sheriff to make service. Counsel should refer to the statutes (Va. Code § 8.01-316, § 8.01-317 and § 8.01-324) to determine whether applicable grounds for such service exist.

Documents for Service by Publication are prepared by the Attorney or the Pro Se litigant. The Order (Form CC-1434) and Affidavit (Form CC-1435) are filed with the Clerk's Office (Room 314). A cover letter must accompany the affidavit and proposed order stating the name of the newspaper in which publication is being requested. The name of the newspaper is also listed in the proposed Order. Once the Clerk reviews the Affidavit and proposed Order, the Clerk will enter the Order. The Order and Affidavit will be forwarded to the requested publication. Before the Order is published, the newspaper will contact the attorney or Pro Se litigant for payment. Payment for the publication is not made to the Court. Please check the clerk's office website for the currently approved newspapers for publication.

Practice Tip: A common source of difficulty and delay involves Affidavits which contain only broad, conclusory allegations, but lack sufficient factual allegations to support the conclusions. For example, affidavits alleging “due diligence” are frequently deemed insufficient if they do not allege the specific efforts made to locate the defendant (such as searches of local telephone listings, post office mailing addresses, the records of the Department of Motor Vehicles, local utility company records, and the internet). Affidavits should contain specific detail as to efforts made.

Similarly, if non-residency is the ground used for publication, the Affidavit must affirmatively state that the defendant is a nonresident and provide the last known address of the defendant outside of the Commonwealth. It is not sufficient, for example, for an Affidavit to contain a Virginia address as the last known address and yet allege that the defendant is a non-resident because he “no longer resides at that address.” Non-residency cannot be assumed from such an allegation (as the defendant may have moved within the state).

Affidavits of non-residency or failure to locate after exercise of due diligence must be filed as required by the Code and must be signed by a party, rather than the party's counsel.

Note regarding publication in divorce cases pursuant to Va. Code §§ 20-104 through 20-105.1: Please note that some specific differences exist with respect to Orders of Publication in domestic relations cases. For more specific information on orders of publication in domestic relations cases, please see the Virginia Code §§ 20-104 through 20-105.1.

2.08 Checking Service:

The status of service returns can be obtained in multiple ways:

- Access to the Case Management System (CMS) from any computer with internet access. Prince William Circuit Court uses the Supreme Court Case Management System (which is used by 117 of the 120 Circuit Courts in the Commonwealth) Go to <http://ewsocis1.courts.state.va.us/CJISWeb/circuit.jsp>
- Prince William Circuit Court Clerk’s Office at <https://www.pwcva.gov/departments/circuit/court-case-information>
- Attorneys with subscriptions to the Officer of the Court Remote Access (“OCRA”)
- Public computers located in the Courthouse. Public Service Center (Room 305), the Civil Section (Room 314), or the Criminal Section (Room 310).

2.09 Alias Summons:

Please remember that when requesting the issuance of an alias summons, the Sheriff's fee, as well as the appropriate number of copies of the pleading to be served, must accompany a copy of the alias summons request.

2.10 Acceptance/Waiver of Service of Process and Waiver of Future Service of Process and Notice:

Parties may accept and/or waive service of process and waive future service of process and notice. See Acceptance/Waiver of Service of Process and Waiver of Future Service of Process and Notice form (Appendix Form D-9) (Form CC-1406).

3.00 CIVIL MOTIONS

The Bench and the Bar strive to promote the highest level of professionalism and civility in all dealings with the Court, counsel, and litigants. Accordingly, motions day protocol is predicated upon courtesy and respect. Counsel who cannot be present in the courtroom at the call of the docket, for instance, should inform opposing counsel and the Court of their whereabouts before the call commences. Similarly, opposing parties and their counsel are expected to treat each other with respect at all times. Information regarding civil motions day procedures can also be found at:

<https://www.pwcva.gov/departments/circuit-court/settingremoving-civil-motions>

3.01 Noticing Civil Motions For Hearing:

Civil motions, except garnishments, interrogatories, name changes, amend birth/death certificates, adult guardianship, infant settlements, pendente lite (set date certain), rule to show cause (set date certain) are heard every Friday at 10:30 a.m. Motions in which the Commonwealth's Attorney is involved are heard every Friday at 9:00 a.m. Motions can be placed on the appropriate docket with at least two weeks' notice by:

- A. filing a Praecipe/Notice along with the Motion in the Civil Section of the (Clerk's office (located in Room 314) or
- B. by email at circuitcourt@pwcgov.org no later than 5:00 p.m.

(Appendix Form D-10 10:30 am Motion's Day Praecipe/Notice and Appendix Form D-11 9am Motion's Day Praecipe/Notice). The opposing side must also be given notice by this time. No motions submitted after the above-referenced deadline may be placed on the docket for the following Friday without authorization from a Judge. All motions must comply with Rule 4:15 of the Va. Supreme Court Rules.

Webex is permissible, but strongly discouraged due to technology limitations. Best practice is to appear in person. If counsel and/or witnesses are to appear by Webex a motion must be filed with the Court requesting permission and resolved before the day of the hearing.

If a Webex appearance is allowed by the presiding Judge, Chambers will contact counsel and pro se litigants with instructions prior to the hearing date and time. See Section A (Judges Chambers) subsection 6).

Counsel of record shall make a reasonable effort to confer before giving notice of a motion to resolve the subject of the motion and to determine a mutually agreeable hearing date and time. The notice shall be accompanied by a certification that the movant has in good faith conferred or attempted to confer with other affected parties in an effort to resolve the dispute without court action. (See VA Supreme Court Rule 4:15(b))

The first page of the Civil Motion's Day Praeceptum or Notice must be on yellow paper.

Practice Tip: You may have your personal copy of your motion file stamped on the back by a clerk which can serve as evidence of the date and time your motion was filed.

Practice Tip: No pleadings are accepted by fax or email by the Judges' Chambers. If counsel needs to get a courtesy copy of a pleading to Chambers, the original must be filed with the Clerk's office first and the copy for Chambers may be delivered to the Chambers reception desk.

3.02 Briefs for Motions:

The Clerk's Office receives frequent questions regarding whether certain motions require briefs or two weeks' notice. The requirements for pretrial motions are set forth in Part 4 of the Virginia Supreme Court Rules. Prince William County has no requirements that differ from or supplement the Virginia Supreme Court Rules.

Counsel are reminded that pursuant to Rule 4:15 of the Va. Supreme Court Rules, briefs filed in support of or in opposition to a motion may not be more than five pages in length unless a Judge has authorized a party to file a longer brief.

3.03 Removing or Continuing a Motion:

Motions may be removed or continued by consent of all parties prior to motions day by notifying Chambers at 703-792-6171. In addition, a pleading also must be filed stating the reason(s) for removal and that it is by agreement of all counsel. Without consent of all parties, the request must be made to the Court. If a Judge (as opposed to a party) has put a case on the docket (such as for a Rule to Show Cause), it may not be removed without the permission of the Judge, regardless of whether or not the parties consent. Regarding removing a trial, please see section on trials.

To place a motion back on the docket after being removed, a new praecipe/notice must be timely filed, unless all parties are present and an order continuing the matter to another date is entered.

3.04 Judge and Courtroom Assignments for Civil Motions:

At the time a case is filed, it is assigned to a Judge for the purpose of hearing motions. Subject to availability, the assigned Judge generally hears all motions in a given case.

On Friday morning, the docket and Courtroom assignments are posted on the third floor monitors next to the elevators. If you checked the courtroom assignment in advance, check the monitor again the morning of the case as matters may have been transferred. If you can't find your case, please go to the Clerk's Office in Room 314.

3.05 Motions Day Schedule and Time Limitations:

Motions day begins at 10:30 a.m. (except for motions on civil cases involving the Commonwealth's Attorney which begin at 9:00 am) with the Judge calling the docket to obtain time estimates from counsel. Time estimates are used to prioritize cases, with the Court normally taking the shorter motions first. Accordingly, the time estimate given should reflect the total time for both the moving and responding party.

There is a maximum 30-minute time limitation for motions heard on a regular Friday Motions Day at 10:30 a.m. If a motion will take longer than thirty (30) minutes for the Court to hear, attorneys/pro se parties should contact Judges' Chambers at (703) 792-6171 to schedule a date certain for the motion to be heard by the Court. If counsel cannot agree whether a matter can be heard in thirty (30) minutes or less, they should indicate this at the call of the docket and the Court will either grant five (5) minutes for argument to determine whether or not the motion can be heard on the regular docket, or, in its discretion, will set a hearing date or direct the litigants to obtain a date certain from Chambers.

3.06 Motions' Day Orders:

Counsel are strongly encouraged to bring a proposed Order reflecting what that attorney hopes the Judge's ruling will be. If the Judge's ruling is accurately set forth in one of the Orders prepared by counsel in advance, that attorney should present the Order to opposing counsel for endorsement and notation of exceptions. Counsel may negotiate the Order outside the Courtroom in the hallway and then submit the Order to the Court or through the Judge's deputy in the courtroom. Absent permission from the Judge who conducted the hearing, Orders reflecting the Court's ruling on all motions must be presented to the Judge prior to the Judge going off the bench on the day of the hearing.

When submitting a proposed order for a Judge's signature prior to the hearing, submit just the original. Do not submit any additional copies. A law clerk will review the proposed order.

3.07 Particular Motions:

A. Discovery Motions:

Discovery requests that are subject to a motion to compel or a motion for protective order should be attached to the motion, as provided for in Rule 4:8(c) of the Va. Supreme Court Rules. Counsel are expected to make: 1) a good faith effort to resolve or narrow discovery disputes prior to court intervention to the extent possible, as provided for in Rule 4:15 of the Va. Supreme Court Rules, and 2) to make a reasonable effort to agree on the date to have the motion heard.

B. Decrees of Reference/Commissioner in Chancery:

Decrees of Reference do not have to be noticed for hearing on a Friday and may simply be filed if there is an agreement by all counsel or a waiver by the defendant setting out the duties of Commissioners in Chancery in the Decree of Reference. If there is no agreement or waiver, the requesting party must place a motion on Motions Day requesting that a Commissioner be appointed. Generally, the Court appoints Commissioners on a rotating basis. However, if circumstances warrant the appointment of a particular Commissioner, counsel should explain such circumstances in a cover letter accompanying the Decree of Reference. If a Commissioner is no longer needed in a particular case, the attorney should submit an order vacating the appointment of the Commissioner. Counsel should also consider attaching an Order for Appointment of Commissioner in Chancery that spells out the responsibilities of the Commissioner in Chancery.

3.08 Emergency Motions:

Counsel should first carefully and objectively determine how urgent a matter actually is before trying to schedule an emergency motion before the Court. As a general rule, an emergency exists only when the passage of time will substantially prejudice one of the parties. If a true emergency requires immediate attention, counsel should contact Judges' Chambers at (703) 792-6171. For ethical as well as practical reasons, all counsel should participate in the communication with Judges' Chambers regarding the matter. Only in extraordinary circumstances will the Court entertain a motion without notice or without the moving party having made a reasonable attempt to give notice to all parties to participate in the communication with the court.

4.00 CIVIL PRETRIAL PRACTICE AND PROCEDURES

Information regarding civil trial procedures can also be found at <https://www.pwcva.gov/department/circuit-court/settingciviltrials>.

4.01 Setting a Case for Trial:

See Rule 1:20 of the Va. Supreme Court Rules.

Cases are set for trial in Prince William County by one of the following methods:

- A. All dispositive motions, demurrers, and pleas in bar must be heard and resolved before a case is set for trial. By setting a case for trial, counsel and pro se parties represent that all dispositive motions have been resolved. If any dispositive motions, demurrers, or pleas remain unresolved at the time of the Pretrial Conference the case may be removed from the trial docket and a hearing scheduled for those dispositive motions, demurrers, or pleas.
- B. All counsel of record agree to an available trial date and may secure approval of the Court by telephone call to Judges' Chambers (703-792-6171) at any time prior to the week preceding the Term Day docket. Calls must be made by counsel only, and not by administrative staff or law clerks. The trial date must then be confirmed by Praeipie or letter from one of the lawyers to all counsel of record, pro se litigants, and the Court. If any party to an action is pro se (without counsel), trial dates must be set either on a Term Day or on a Motion's Day, and both counsel and pro se parties must attend that hearing.
- C. All counsel of record may agree to a trial date as a part of a Pretrial Scheduling Order in coordination with Judges' Chambers which is submitted to the Court for approval pursuant to Rule 1:18 of the Va. Supreme Court Rules.
- D. The Court may, at the request of counsel of record, or may at its own discretion, direct counsel of record to appear, in person or by telephone, for a conference to set a trial date and consider other matters set forth in Rules 1:19 or 4:13 of the Va. Supreme Court Rules.
- E. Counsel may place the matter on the Court's regularly scheduled Civil Term Day docket. Civil Term Day is on the first Tuesday after the first Monday of every month, at 2:00 p.m. To place a case on the Civil Term Day Docket, a Term Day Praeipie (Appendix Form D-12 Civil Term Day Praeipie) must be filed with the Court (and all parties must be properly noticed) by the Tuesday preceding the Term Day. By setting the matter on either the Civil Term Day or a regular Motion's Day Docket to set a trial date counsel are certifying that all demurrers and pleas in bars have been resolved and that the case is ready for trial. If there are demurrers or pleas in bar outstanding a trial will not be scheduled until they are resolved. At Term Day, counsel must be prepared to inform the Court of the anticipated number of days for trial and whether a jury is requested.

- F. Counsel may place the matter on a regular Motion's Day Docket for the purpose of scheduling a trial date.

Counsel is encouraged to schedule a trial date in a timely fashion. It is expected that trial dates will be set within one year of the filing date.

Continuances of trial dates are discouraged and will be granted only for good cause shown. Continuances CANNOT be accomplished solely by agreement of counsel. Counsel must seek a Judge's approval for a continuance. If permission for a continuance is granted, an agreed order granting the continuance should be submitted for that Judge's signature immediately.

4.02 Pretrial Scheduling Orders:

Prince William County practice with regard to Pretrial Scheduling Orders is in accordance with Part 1 of the Virginia Supreme Court Rules and pursuant to Court Order dated November 29, 2017 (Appendix Form D-13 Standing Order Establishing Procedures for Entry of Pretrial Scheduling Orders and Setting Pretrial Conferences in Certain Cases). Contemporaneously with the setting of the trial date, a Pretrial Scheduling Order shall be entered in every civil case set for trial by jury and in all contested domestic relations cases. (Appendix Form D-14 Uniform Pretrial Scheduling Order for Civil Cases and Appendix Form D-15 Prince William Uniform Pretrial Scheduling Order in Eminent Domain Proceedings). A Pretrial Conference in accordance with Rules 1:19 and 4:13 of the Va. Supreme Court Rules will be scheduled in all such cases at the time a trial is scheduled and the Pretrial Scheduling Order is entered. A Pretrial Scheduling Order may be entered and a Pretrial Conference may be scheduled in any other case in the discretion of the Court. Pretrial Scheduling Orders are encouraged in order to facilitate mutual agreement and understanding concerning timeframes and the orderly progression of cases. Counsel may submit agreed Pretrial Scheduling Orders or request the Court to enter a scheduling order by motion.

With the exception of domestic relations and eminent domain cases, a court will not enter a scheduling order which deviates from the terms of the Prince William Uniform Pretrial Scheduling Order unless either (1) counsel of record for all parties agree to different provisions, or (2) the court, after providing an opportunity for counsel of record to be heard, makes a finding that the scheduling order contained in the Appendix is not consistent with the efficient and orderly administration of justice under the specific circumstances of that case.

Pretrial Scheduling Orders in Domestic Relations cases are discussed further in Section C.

4.03 Pretrial Conferences and Stipulations:

Pursuant to Court Order dated November 29, 2017, (Appendix Form D-13 Standing Order Establishing Procedures for Entry of Pretrial Scheduling Orders and Setting Pretrial Conferences in Certain Cases), in every civil case set for trial by jury and in all contested domestic relations cases, a Pretrial Conference to be held pursuant to Rules 1:19 and 4:13 of the Va. Supreme Court Rules will be scheduled at the time the Pretrial Scheduling Order is entered. The Pretrial Conference shall be held approximately two weeks before trial.

Pursuant to the November 29, 2017, Court Order, the following rules apply to all Pretrial Conferences:

All counsel and pro se parties shall attend the Pretrial Conference in person unless excused for hardship by a Judge of this court. Any request to be excused from attending the conference for hardship must be made in writing explaining the reasons for the request and filed with the court at least 10 days in advance of the conference with a courtesy copy to Judges' Chambers with a copy to opposing counsel and/or pro se parties. A Judge will enter an order granting or denying the request. If the request is granted, the order will require counsel and/or the party to appear by telephone or Webex at the conference.

At the Pretrial Conference, counsel and any pro se parties shall be prepared to address those items listed in Rules 1:19 and 4:13 of the Va. Supreme Court Rules and in the Pretrial Conference Agenda attached to the Court Order. (Appendix Form D-13 Standing Order Establishing Procedures for Entry of Pretrial Scheduling Orders and Setting Pretrial Conferences in Certain Cases).

In all other cases, upon motion, Pretrial Conferences may be ordered at the Court's discretion, pursuant to Rule 4:13 of the Va. Supreme Court Rules.

Additionally, counsel are encouraged to communicate before trial for the purpose of streamlining the trial, by considering, among other things, what stipulations can be made. Generally, stipulations may be agreed upon as to any matter of fact, law or procedure relevant to the issues to be raised at trial. Preferably, all stipulations should be in writing.

4.04 Discovery:

Discovery is to be conducted in accordance with the Virginia Supreme Court Rules. Accordingly, neither discovery requests nor objections and responses are to be filed with the Court, except as attachments to motions thereon.

Non-party deponents who are not willing to voluntarily appear for depositions must be subpoenaed to their depositions. Virginia has adopted the Uniform Foreign Depositions Act. Va. Code § 8.01-411, which can be utilized to compel the production of out-of-state evidence.

4.05 Civil Witness and Document Subpoenas:

Information regarding civil witness and document subpoenas can also be found at: <https://www.pwcva.gov/departments/circuit-court/subpoena-requests>. Counsel should also consult the Virginia Code and applicable rules for specific information relating to subpoenas.

A. Clerk Issued Subpoenas:

See Rule 4:9A of the Va. Supreme Court Rules

Requests for witness subpoenas (whether for trial or deposition) and document subpoenas (subpoena duces tecum) may be made by praecipe or letter filed with the Clerk, in the Clerk's Office (Room 314). Information provided must include the case style, witness(s) name and address(s), and date and time of trial or deposition. Similarly, a subpoenas duces tecum can be issued by the Clerk upon written request. A specific list of documents being requested must be provided. Subpoenas Duces Tecum must include the original plus two copies for each individual to be served. Attorneys are encouraged to issue subpoenas as set forth below and in accordance with Rule 4:9A of the Va. Supreme Court Rules and Va. Code § 8.01-407.

B. Attorney-Issued Subpoenas:

See Rule 4:9A of the Va. Supreme Court Rules and Va. Code § 8.01-407

Many civil witness and document subpoenas may also be attorney-issued in compliance with the provisions of the Virginia Code and the Virginia Supreme Court Rules. An attorney-issued subpoena must be on a form approved by the Virginia Supreme Court (Appendix Form D-16 Subpoena for Witness (Civil) Attorney Issued) (Form DC-497) and Appendix Form D-17 for instructions on using this Form) (Appendix Form D-18 Subpoena Duces Tecum (Civil) Attorney Issued (Form DC-498) and Appendix Form D-19 for instructions on using this Form).

NOTE: Medical Records. There are special procedures for issuance of subpoena duces tecum to a health care entity for medical records in order to comply with both federal and state law (See Rule 4:9A(e) of the Va. Supreme Court Rules). Special notice is required to the individual whose health care records are being sought (Appendix Form D-20 Notice to Individual – Subpoena Duces Tecum for Health Records) (Form DC-348) and Appendix Form D-21 for instructions regarding this Form) and notice to the health care entities (Appendix Form D-22 Notice to Health Care Entities – Subpoena Duces Tecum for Health Records (Form DC-350) and Appendix Form D-23 for instructions regarding this Form).

A copy of the subpoena (and, if to be served by the Sheriff, all service fees) must be mailed or delivered to the Clerk's Office on the date of issuance by the attorney, together with a certificate of service. Attorney-issued subpoenas being transmitted by Sheriff's Service must be accompanied by a transmittal sheet containing all pertinent information.

C. Timing:

Attorneys are encouraged to file witness and document subpoenas as far in advance of the hearing date as possible. While the Clerk's Office makes every effort to process requests as expeditiously as possible, as a practical matter, witnesses must be given reasonable notice. This requires advance planning on the part of the requesting party.

Pursuant to Va. Code § 8.01-407, if a witness subpoena is served less than five calendar days before the appearance is required, the Court may, after considering all of the circumstances, refuse to enforce the subpoena for lack of adequate notice.

Counsel requesting a subpoena duces tecum must allow at least 14 days after the service of the subpoena for compliance or it will be subject to objection for not being timely served. (See Rule 4:9(A)(a)(2) of the Va. Supreme Court Rules.)

Please take into consideration that the paperwork for subpoenas to be served outside of Prince William County must be forwarded to the appropriate jurisdiction and then go through whatever procedures the Sheriff's Department in the foreign jurisdiction employs. As such, service outside of Prince William County almost certainly takes more time than service within the County. Counsel should plan accordingly.

D. Fees:

The Clerk's fee for clerk-issued subpoenas is currently $5.00 each. Additionally, the Sheriff's fee of $12.00 for each service should also be included. If the subpoena is to be served by private process server, please note this with the subpoena request at the time it is filed.

E. Status of Subpoena Requests:

The status of service can be obtained in multiple ways.

- Access to the Case Management System (CMS) from any computer with internet access. Prince William Circuit Court uses the Supreme Court Case Management System (which is used by 117 of the 120 Circuit Courts in the Commonwealth).
Go to <https://www.ewsocis1.courts.state.va.us/CJISWeb/circuit.jsp>

- Prince William Circuit Court Clerk’s Office at <https://www.pwcva.gov/department/circuit-court/court-case-information>
- Attorneys with subscriptions to the Officer of the Court Remote Access (“OCRA”)
- Public computers located in the Courthouse: Public Service Center (Room 305), the Criminal Section (Room 310), or the Civil Section (Room 314).

4.06 Time Estimates:

Counsel will receive an email or call from Judges’ Chambers two (2) weeks before trial requesting an estimate of the time necessary for trial and confirming that a jury, if one was previously requested, is still required. The week before trial, Counsel will receive a second call asking for confirmation of the time estimate. It is essential that Counsel promptly return calls from Chambers for time estimates. The number reserved for this purpose is 703-792-6013. (This is not a general number for use in calling Chambers, but rather reserved for time estimates and the like for upcoming trials.) Counsel who know they will be unavailable when the call may come in should arrange for staff to provide time estimate information to Chambers.

Cases are assigned to Judges on the afternoon preceding the trial based on availability and counsel’s time estimates. Counsel should make every effort to provide an accurate time estimate. Failure to provide an accurate time estimate can severely disrupt the Court’s schedule and may result in your case being heard at the end of the docket. If Chambers does not know the time estimate and the docket is full, the Judge may continue the case or assign the case as a hold case that will be heard as soon as a Judge becomes available.

When the status of a case changes, such as by reaching an agreement, it is counsel’s responsibility to notify Chambers as soon as possible. The number reserved for such calls is 703-792-6013.

4.07 Settlement and Free Judicial Settlement Conference:

Counsel are encouraged to conduct settlement negotiations in advance of the trial date.

Parties may also avail themselves of the Virginia Supreme Court’s Judicial Settlement Conference Program, which is free to litigants. A list of retired Judges participating in this program is posted on the Virginia Supreme Court’s website at http://www.courts.state.va.us/courtadmin/aoc/djs/programs/jsc/jsc_judges.html. To use the program you should identify the Judge you wish to schedule and obtain that Judge’s contact information from the Circuit Court Clerk’s office. You will need to coordinate a date with the Judge and opposing counsel. Once the settlement conference is scheduled you must then submit an agreed order to Judges’ Chambers. In the event one party is pro se, certain Judges will not agree to schedule a settlement conference.

When a case settles in advance of trial, it is both parties' responsibility to inform Chambers at 703-792-6171 and all witnesses as soon as possible thereafter. Revised time estimates should be called in to this number in the event of a partial settlement or complete settlement when counsel wishes to appear solely to make a record of the settlement agreement.

5.00 INCIDENTS OF CIVIL TRIAL

5.01 Court Reporters:

The Court does not provide a court reporter for any civil matters. The Court, in its discretion, may require a court reporter in any civil case. The Court requires a court reporter in every civil case set for trial by jury and in all contested domestic relations cases. In the event no party has provided for a court reporter, the Court may, in its discretion, require that the hearing be postponed until a court reporter is provided. The litigant who is required to or chooses to hire a court reporter must make the appropriate arrangements with a court reporting service and bears the cost thereof absent an agreement or order to the contrary. Parties interested in making a contemporaneous record of the proceedings are highly encouraged to obtain a court reporter, as recollections often differ or are incomplete.

In the event the Court approves, in advance of the hearing, the recording of the proceedings by mechanical or electronic device rather than by court reporter, the party or counsel who has furnished the device will be designated as the person responsible for reporting and recording the proceedings, and for preserving the original records thereof, as provided in Va. Code § 17.1-128. The original records shall remain subject to further order of the Court.

The Court may enter further orders regarding allocation of costs and responsibilities with respect to recording proceedings and transcription of recordings.

5.02 Jury Panel Information:

The pre-panel jury list is available from the Jury Clerk in the Jury Assembly Room, and can be requested three (3) full business days before trial. The list will include the name, age, address, occupation and employer of each person on the panel. Information regarding the particular panel assigned to a case will be available on the morning of trial. See Va. Code § 8.01-353.

For further information, contact the Deputy Clerk in charge of juries and panel information at 703-792-6047.

5.03 Hold Cases:

Cases being placed “on hold” are posted as “UNA” on the docket board. Hold cases are called as Judges become available. You are requested to wait in the hallway outside for your case to be called.

5.04 Presentation of Evidence:

- A. Recording equipment and portable electronic devices in the Courthouse. Electronic devices, weapons and items which are normally not permitted in the Courthouse. See Section I on Technology and Section J on Security:

Also see Court Order dated June 30, 2020, (Appendix Form D-24 Court Order: Relating to Recording Equipment and Portable Electronic Devices:

1. PORTABLE ELECTRONIC DEVICES: Portable personal computers, tablets, computers, mobile telephones (including telephones with cameras and audio and video recording and transmission capabilities), smart watches when connected to mobile telephones, and e-book readers (hereafter, “Portable Electronic Devices”) are permitted inside the Prince William County Courthouse, subject to the following regulations:
2. PHOTOGRAPHY IN THE COURTHOUSE: Photography, video recording, audio recording and/or other audio or video transmission from inside the Courthouse, (other than use to make or receive an audio telephone call), is strictly prohibited without written permission of the Court or other authorized officer.
3. NON-PORTABLE ELECTRONIC DEVICES: All other cameras, video cameras, video recording equipment and recording devices that are not a portable electronic device are prohibited beyond the entry points in the Courthouse, except for use in photography of weddings taking place in the Courthouse as to which prior arrangements have been made with the Sheriff. Prohibited photographic and video recording equipment may be permitted into the Courthouse by prior written authorization by any active Judge of the 31st Judicial Circuit or its District Courts.
4. USE IN COMMON AREAS: Subject to the prohibition in the preceding paragraph, persons possessing a Portable Electronic Device may use that device while in common areas of the Courthouse, such as lobbies and corridors, subject to further restrictions on the time, place, and manner of such use that are appropriate to maintain safety (including pedestrian traffic, ingress and egress), security, decorum, order and the proper administration of justice.

5. USE IN COURTROOMS: The use of a Portable Electronic Device inside a courtroom for any purpose is prohibited unless expressly authorized by the presiding Judge. Portable Electronic Devices must remain silent and out of sight at all times.
6. JUROR USE: Jurors may possess and use a Portable Electronic Device in the courthouse, except while in a courtroom. Jurors are strictly prohibited from using a Portable Electronic Device to conduct any research related in any way to the case on which the juror serves at any time during the juror's term of service. Jurors are prohibited from using a Portable Electronic Device to communicate about the case on which the juror serves until after the juror is excused at the end of the case.
7. CONFISCATION OF EQUIPMENT AND EJECTION OF USER: Persons using any Portable Electronic Device in violation of this or any Order of the Court may be ejected from the Courthouse and/or found in contempt of court and subject to penalties as provided by law for contempt and/or violation of criminal statutes and ordinances. Any Portable Electronic Device used in violation of this policy may be confiscated.
8. FURTHER LIMITATIONS BY JUDGES: A Judge or other authorized officer may prohibit or further restrict the possession or use of any Portable Electronic Device if it interferes with the administration of justice, poses a threat to safety or security, or for any reason within the sole discretion of the Presiding Judge or other authorized officer.

Nothing in these Guidelines limits the Court's authority pursuant to Virginia Code§ 19.2-266 to regulate media coverage of judicial proceedings.

B. Counsel Table:

The Plaintiff should use the counsel table closest to the jury box.

C. Standing and Use of Lectern:

Always stand when addressing the Court. Always speak from directly behind the lectern unless making an objection or unless given permission by the Judge to do otherwise. Ask permission of the Judge to approach a witness, the jury or the bench.

D. Exhibits:

Prior to trial or during a break, counsel may tender exhibits to the clerk for marking. Counsel should refer to the exhibit number when showing an exhibit to a witness.

E. Deposition Testimony:

If evidence is to be provided by deposition, counsel should prepare a copy of the relevant portion of the transcript prior to trial by indicating thereon the testimony to be read. The party putting on the evidence is responsible for having someone present to read the deposition into evidence. For video depositions, obtain rulings on objections in advance of trial and prepare a clean copy of the video to show to the jury. See Rule 1:18 and 4:7 of the Va. Supreme Court Rules. Prior to trial, Counsel are encouraged to review the Rules of the Virginia Supreme Court, as amended, concerning the use of depositions.

F. Views:

Counsel, as far in advance as practicable, who intend to request that a jury or Judge view a scene should file a motion to be heard not less than fourteen (14) days before trial so that appropriate arrangements can be made by the Sheriff's Department or the Court.

G. Jury Instructions:

The Court encourages counsel to refer to the publication "Model Jury Instructions" for drafting assistance. Proposed instructions will be exchanged at least two (2) days before trial with opposing counsel in accordance with the Uniform Pretrial Scheduling Order. Instructions should be prepared on 8 1/2" X 11" paper with the plaintiff numbering its instructions and the defendant lettering its instructions. Counsel should provide the Court with two sets of proposed instructions: one with supporting citations, which should also be provided to opposing counsel, and one without citations to be given to the jury.

H. Trial Briefs:

The Court generally does not require trial briefs. Best practice is to submit trial briefs well in advance. Counsel who intend to cite unusual case law may wish to make copies of the case(s) to provide to the Court and the other parties.

5.05 Obtaining/Receiving a Copy of a Signed Final Order:

One certified copy of the final order is provided free of charge to all parties, which will be sent by email. To obtain an additional copy of the final order, attach a self-addressed stamped envelope to the proposed order or go to Room 314 of the Clerk's Office. All other copies are fifty cents ($.50) per page. Certifications are additional $2.00 per document. Prices are subject to change.

6.03 Recording and Releasing Judgments:

Information regarding recording and releasing judgments can also be found at <https://www.pwcva.gov/departments/circuit-court/civil-judgements>

The process for domesticating an out-of-state judgment is set forth in the Va. Code § 8.01-465.2.
- E. To obtain an abstract of a Prince William County judgment under triple seal, present the request therefore and the appropriate fee to the Clerk in Room 300. A stamped, self-addressed envelope is required so that the Clerk can return the triple sealed document to the attorney's office once it has been prepared. levies from state agencies and foreign levies are processed in the Land Records Office, Room 300.

SECTION E: DOMESTIC RELATIONS PRACTICE GUIDELINES (PROCEDURES FOR DIVORCE, SPOUSAL SUPPORT, CUSTODY, VISITATION, CHILD SUPPORT AND EQUITABLE DISTRIBUTION CASES)
(Adopted June 2023)

1.00 CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION AND PROCEDURES FOR COMPLIANCE
WITH § 20.121.03

1.01 Counsel and any party not represented by counsel are responsible for compliance with Va. Code § 20-121.03: Identifying information confidential; separate addendum:

Any petition, pleading, motion, order, or decree filed under this chapter, including any agreements of the parties or transcripts, shall not contain the social security number of any party or of any minor child of any party, or any information of any party that provides identifying account numbers for specific assets, liabilities, accounts, or credit cards. Such information if required by law to be provided to a governmental agency or required to be recorded for the benefit or convenience of the parties, shall be contained in a separate Addendum filed by the attorney or party. Such separate Addendum shall be used to distribute the information only as required by law. Such Addendum shall otherwise be made available only to the parties, their attorneys, and to such other persons as the Court in its discretion may allow. The attorney or party who prepares or submits a petition, pleading, motion, agreement, order, or decree shall ensure that any information protected pursuant to this section is removed prior to filing with the clerk and that any separate addendum is incorporated by reference into the petition, pleading, motion, agreement, order, or decree.

The Addendum may be in the form suggested by the Supreme Court and should be filed with a pink coversheet stating that it is a Private Addendum. The Private Addendum may also contain other information or documents as ordered by the Court (Appendix Form E-1 Addendum for Protected Identifying Information – Confidential (Form CC-1426)).

1.02 Procedures to comply with Va. Code § 20-121.03:

A. Complaint for Divorce:

The Complaint should NOT identify any party's social security number. The Code does not require that the social security number of a party be placed in the Complaint; therefore, the social security number is not "required by law" pursuant to § 20-121.03. If a Complaint does contain an improper social security number, the party shall file a motion to amend the Complaint. When such motion is granted, the amended Complaint (without the SSN) will be placed in the Court's file as a public record. The original Complaint (with the SSN) shall be placed into a separate Private Addendum.

B. Property Settlement Agreement (PSA):

1. PSA To Be Incorporated: If the parties have a PSA and wish to incorporate it into an Order or the Final Order of Divorce, a copy of the PSA must be submitted to the Court. If the PSA contains information prohibited by § 20-121.03, then the Order/FOD should state that the PSA is being incorporated but the original PSA is being placed in a separate Private Addendum due to the confidential information. The attorney, at his/her option, may also redact the prohibited information from the original PSA before submission. Such redaction must be initialed by both parties.
2. PSA Not To Be Incorporated: If the parties have a PSA and do not wish to incorporate the PSA, the PSA should still be referenced in the Final Order of Divorce without incorporating it. If the PSA is not to be incorporated, the original PSA need not be submitted to the Court unless the divorce is based on the grounds of a six month separation.
3. Divorce Based on a Six-Month Separation: If the parties intend to file for divorce based on a six month separation, the parties must: 1) have no minor children; and 2) have executed a PSA prior to filing. Therefore, even if the parties are not seeking to incorporate the PSA, the parties must still submit a copy of the PSA to the Court.
4. No Identifying Information in PSA: If the PSA does not contain any confidential identifying information prohibited by § 20-121.03, the PSA may be submitted to the Court without the necessity of a separate Private Addendum.

C. Final Order of Divorce (FOD):

The Code requires that all FODs shall contain the social security number (SSN) OR driver's license number (DLN) of a party (see § 20-91). It is strongly suggested that if the party has a DLN, such number should be used in lieu of the SSN. If the parties will be using their SSNs, the FOD will need to reference the SSNs and state that the numbers are contained in a separate Private Addendum.

1. Party Does Not Have a DLN: If the party does not have a DLN, such party must provide his/her SSN to be placed in a separate Private Addendum.

2. Party Does Have A DLN: If the party does have a DLN, the FOD can be submitted using such party's DLN without the necessity of a separate Private Addendum. However, such FOD must not contain any other confidential identifying information prohibited by § 20-121.03. If such FOD does contain other confidential identifying information, even if the party is using his/her DLN, such confidential information shall be placed in a separate Private Addendum.

D. Transcripts, Affidavits:

Pursuant to § 20-121.03, transcripts and affidavits are included in the list of items that are prohibited from containing confidential identifying information. The attorneys are responsible for making sure that such confidential information is not placed in the public file.

E. Qualified Domestic Relations Order (QDRO):

Pursuant to § 20-121.03, a Qualified Domestic Relations Order (QDRO), because it is an Order of the Court, is included in the list of items that are prohibited from containing confidential identifying information. Because all QDROs contain confidential identifying information, such information shall be submitted by a separate Private Addendum.

F. Pendente Lite Orders:

Pursuant to § 20-121.03, any Order entered by the Court is prohibited from containing confidential identifying information. If the Order is required to contain the confidential identifying information, the party must submit the information by a separate Private Addendum.

G. Exhibits:

Exhibits, whether offered during or before trial, are not covered by the statute because they are not "a petition, pleading, motion, order, or decree". However, if an exhibit contains such confidential identifying information, the information should be redacted or the exhibit should be placed in the Private Addendum envelope. It is the attorney's responsibility to ensure that this is done.

2.00 UNCONTESTED ORE TENUS PROCEEDINGS

(Including the Thursday 9:00 a.m. Ore Tenus Docket)

This is a program of the Circuit Court to accommodate the prompt resolution of uncontested divorces. All contested divorce cases need to be set on a date certain for trial.

2.01 Prerequisites:

Ore tenus divorce hearings will be heard on the first and third Thursday of the month at 9:00 a.m. Parties to an uncontested divorce may proceed ore tenus on either the first or third Thursday of the month at 9:00 a.m. docket if the only testimony that will be presented are the grounds of divorce. To be placed on the first or third Thursday 9:00 a.m. ore tenus docket, the party must comply with all of the following requirements:

- A. The Defendant must have accepted service of process after receiving the Complaint or must have been properly served pursuant to § 8.01-296.
- B. The Defendant must have: 1) executed a proper waiver of notice and the Defendant or his attorney must have endorsed the FOD; 2) or the Defendant was served by order of publication or by personal service and did not answer within twenty-one (21) days. If there is only substituted service or posted service with no waiver and no signature or endorsement of the FOD, the Plaintiff must serve the Defendant with notice of a Friday Motions Day hearing to set an ore tenus date.
- C. The Plaintiff must submit a written request asking the Court to place the case on the Thursday 9:00 a.m. ore tenus docket.
- D. The parties must have resolved all issues, i.e., spousal support, child support/custody, and property distribution, whether by a PSA or other agreement unless there has been no response by the Defendant such as in the case of service on the Defendant by an Order of Publication, in which case the only relief available will be the divorce itself.
- E. The Final Order of Divorce, VS-4 form, and Private Addendum, if necessary, must be submitted for review by a law clerk at the time of the request for an ore tenus hearing.

2.02 Procedures:

- A. The Plaintiff or his attorney should submit all required documents, i.e., the Acceptance/Waiver (if there is one), the PSA (if there is one), the written request for ore tenus, and the Final Order of Divorce and VS-4 form to the Clerk of Court.

- B. The file will be reviewed by a law clerk to ensure that the file is ready for ore tenus.
- C. Once the law clerk has reviewed the file and approves it for ore tenus, a scheduling clerk from Chambers will contact the Plaintiff or his attorney to schedule a hearing date. If the Defendant has not waived notice nor endorsed the FOD, and was served by either posting or substituted service, the Defendant will need to be served notice of a Friday Motion's docket hearing date to set an ore tenus hearing.
- D. At the hearing, if the Complaint was filed prior to July 1, 2021, the Plaintiff must bring a witness (other than the spouse) who has knowledge to corroborate the facts and circumstances of the marriage and separation. If the Complaint was filed after July 1, 2021, the testimony of a corroborating witness is not necessary. The Defendant may attend but is not required to attend the hearing. A court reporter is not required.

2.03 Divorce by Deposition or Affidavit:

- A. Virginia Code § 20-106 provides for submitting evidence by deposition or by affidavit in certain limited circumstances.
- B. Counsel wishing to proceed by deposition or by affidavit are responsible first to be sure the case is one meeting the threshold requirements of § 20- 106(A), and second to be sure all necessary evidence is included.
- C. If the Complaint was filed prior to July 1, 2021, the Plaintiff must file a corroborating witness affidavit.

3.00 PENDENTE LITE HEARING (Va. Code § 20-103)

3.01 General Procedure:

Pendente lite hearings occur on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday at 10:00 a.m. It is the policy of this Court to hear no more than one pendente lite hearing in a divorce case. The maximum time limit for a pendente lite hearing is two hours. A date certain may be obtained by agreement of the parties through Judges' Chambers or a motion to obtain a date certain may be noticed for any Friday at 10:30 a.m. at which time the parties can obtain a date from the Court.

Any party desiring a court reporter for the pendente lite hearing must make those arrangement.

3.02 Emergency Motions:

True emergencies needing court resolution are rare; when a party requires injunctive relief otherwise irreparable harm may result, a child may be taken to a jurisdiction beyond the reach of the court or a child's safety is at issue and the Department of Social Services or law enforcement are not sufficient resources to address the emergency, the Court may docket a motion on short notice. If a true emergency requires immediate attention, counsel should contact Judges' Chambers at (703) 792-6171. For ethical as well as practical reasons, all counsel should participate in the communication with Judge's Chambers regarding the matter. Only in very extraordinary circumstances will the Court entertain a motion without notice or without the moving party having made a reasonable attempt to give notice to all parties to participate in the communication with the Court. If an emergency motion is filed, please send a courtesy copy to the Chief Judge's Law Clerk.

4.00 THE DOMESTIC CASE TRIAL

In the event the parties do not have a PSA and are not able to get on the Thursday Ore Tenus Docket or proceed by affidavit, the parties will need to set the case for trial to be heard on the grounds of divorce and/or other issues. These hearings will involve grounds of divorce that may be either contested or uncontested. They may or may not involve equitable distribution, custody, visitation or support issues. However, the hearing on grounds of divorce shall NOT be separated from the hearing on other domestic relations issues, if there is one, unless ordered by the Court. A court reporter is needed for all contested domestic cases, which include contested grounds of divorce, equitable distribution, custody, visitation, and support issues.

4.01 Scheduling a Domestic Case Trial:

Domestic case trials occur on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday at 10:00 a.m. If a Domestic case trial is scheduled the parties will present an ore tenus hearing on the grounds of divorce on the same day as the trial whether such grounds are contested or uncontested. However, should the grounds of divorce be contested and counsel expects to call several witnesses, counsel should be prepared to schedule a hearing for more than one day. This hearing date may be set on Term Day, by agreement of counsel through Chambers or on motion by either counsel.

A. By Agreement:

If the parties are in agreement on a date, the parties may call Chambers to determine if the date(s) are available and schedule such hearing for a trial.

B. On Motion:

If a party is seeking a trial date by motion, that party may file a motion to be placed on a Friday Motions Docket, with proper notice to the opposing party, requesting that a date certain be set for trial be scheduled. All such motions must comply with Rule 4:15(b).

C. Term Day:

In lieu of the motion, a party may also file a praecipe for Civil Term Day, with proper notice to the opposing party, to schedule a date certain for trial.

4.02 Domestic Case Hearing Not Scheduled/Needed:

If there are no issues other than no fault grounds for divorce and a trial will not be needed, the following are available to a Plaintiff to be heard on the grounds of divorce:

A. By Agreement:

Refer to 2.00 Ore Tenus Proceedings.

B. No Agreement:

In the event there is no agreement between the parties, the Plaintiff may file a motion to be placed on a Motions Day, with proper notice to the opposing party, requesting that a date certain be set for trial. All such motions must comply with Rule 4:15(b). In lieu of the motion, the Plaintiff may also file a praecipe for Term Day, with proper notice to the opposing party, to schedule a date certain to be heard on the grounds of divorce.

C. Waiver:

Refer to 2.00 Ore Tenus Proceedings.

4.03 Divorce Orders:

A. Statutory Notices:

All Final Orders of Divorce (“FOD”) must contain the notice required by Va. Code § 20-111.1. If any order awards child custody, child support, and/or spousal support, certain statutory notices must be included in the order: for child custody: Va. Code § 20-124.5; for child support: Va. Code § 20-60.3; for spousal support and the parties have no children: Va. Code § 20-107.1(H); for spousal support and the parties do have children: Va. Code § 20-60.3.

B. Articulation of Reasons for Ruling:

The FOD must explain the reasons for certain rulings. A copy of the transcript at the Court's ruling must be appended to a FOD.

C. Entry of Final Order:

After the trial, the court will set a date for entry of the FOD. If the parties agree on the wording of the divorce order, they can submit the signed order to Chambers for entry and neither party will need to appear. The order will be entered in due course after review. The time will vary depending on the court's workload, thus litigants and counsel should not call to check on entry of the order until at least two weeks have passed since submission of the agreed order. If there is a dispute over the court's ruling or the wording of the FOD, the parties must appear on the date set for entry of the FOD.

5.00 DOMESTIC CASE PRETRIAL SCHEDULING ORDER

5.01 Entry of Domestic Case Pretrial Scheduling Order:

A Domestic Case Pretrial Scheduling Order shall be entered in all contested domestic relations cases contemporaneously with setting the trial date. The order will be available to the parties at the term day hearing. In the event the parties obtain their trial date by agreement through Judges' Chambers, the Court will enter the order and it will be counsel's responsibility to obtain a copy (Appendix Form E-2 Domestic Case Pretrial Scheduling Order).

5.02 Pretrial Conferences:

The Pretrial Conference shall be held approximately two (2) to three (3) weeks before the trial on Thursday at 1:00 p.m. All counsel and pro se parties shall attend the Pretrial Conference unless excused for hardship by a Judge of the Circuit Court. The request to be excused from attendance must be made in writing explaining the reasons for the request and filed with the court with a copy to opposing counsel and/or pro se party at least ten (10) days in advance of the conference with a courtesy copy to Judges' Chambers.

The agenda for the Pretrial Conference is stated in the Standing Order Establishing Procedures for Entry of Pretrial Scheduling Orders and Setting Pretrial Conferences in Certain Cases (Appendix Form E-3 Standing Order Establishing Procedures for Entry of Pretrial Scheduling Orders and Setting Pretrial Conferences in Certain Cases).

6.00 SETTLEMENT AND FREE JUDICIAL SETTLEMENT CONFERENCE

Counsel are encouraged to conduct settlement negotiations in advance of the trial date.

Parties may also avail themselves of the Virginia Supreme Court's Judicial Settlement Conference Program, which is free to litigants. A list of retired Judges participating in this program is posted on the Virginia Supreme Court's website at: http://www.courts.state.va.us/courtadmin/aoc/djs/programs/jsc/jsc_judges.html To use the program you should identify the judicial conference program Judge you wish to schedule and obtain that Judge's contact information from the Circuit Court Clerk's Office. You will need to coordinate a date with the Judge and opposing counsel. Once the settlement conference is scheduled you must then submit an agreed order to Judges' Chambers. In the event one party is pro se, certain Judges will not agree to schedule a settlement conference.

When a case settles in advance of trial, it is both parties' responsibility to inform Chambers at 703-792-6171 and all witnesses as soon as possible thereafter. Revised time estimates should be called in to this number in event of a partial settlement or complete settlement when counsel wishes to appear solely to make a record of the settlement agreement.

7.00 GUARDIANS AD LITEM

A Guardian ad litem (GAL) may be appointed to represent a child when custody or visitation of a child is in dispute. The Court will usually require both parties to be responsible for paying the fees of the GAL and to pay a sum to the GAL in advance. At the final hearing a Judge may decide to apportion the costs of the GAL among the parties. The Office of the Executive Secretary, Supreme Court of Virginia, maintains lists of attorneys who are qualified GALs. If there is a dispute as to whether a GAL should be appointed, the party requesting a GAL should place a motion on a Friday Motions Day.

Practice Tip: In custody and visitation cases, the only actions in which the GAL's hourly rates are predetermined by the Virginia Code are in appeals from Juvenile and Domestic Relations District Court. In such cases the GAL's hourly rates are as set forth in Va. Code §§ 19.2-163;19.2-267. In a divorce action the GAL fee is not pre-determined by the Virginia Code and are not payable by the Commonwealth of Virginia. Therefore, the Court in its discretion, may order a deposit in an amount determined by the Court, to be paid either by the requesting party or the parties jointly. It is anticipated that the GAL deposit will likely be an initial sum of $4,000 in such cases. Once that amount is exhausted, the GAL will be permitted to file additional motions with the Court to ask for additional deposits.

A GAL shall be appointed for other defendants under a disability pursuant to Va. Code §§ 8.01-2 and 8.01-9. Where the defendant is a felon, a GAL is only required during the period he/she is confined. By order of the Court, in a civil action for divorce from an incarcerated felon, in certain circumstances the compensation and expenses of the GAL shall be paid by the Commonwealth out of the state treasury from the appropriation for criminal charges. In circumstances in which a GAL is not paid by the Commonwealth, the Court will need to determine which party is responsible for paying the GAL fees.

Va. Code § 8.01-2 defines "Person under a disability" to also include incapacitated persons as defined in § 64.2-2000 and § 64.2-2016 and any other person who, upon motion to the Court by any party to an action or suit or by any person in interest, is determined to be (i) incapable of taking proper care of his person, or (ii) incapable of properly handling and managing his estate, or (iii) otherwise unable to defend his property or legal rights either because of age or temporary or permanent impairment, whether physical, mental, or both. Such impairment may also include substance abuse as defined in § 37.2-100;

Except in cases as otherwise required by law, including infant settlements, compromise settlements involving minors, and appointments of Guardians and Conservators, written reports by the GAL shall be in the discretion of the GAL. Should a GAL determine a written report is appropriate, the GAL shall file such written report five (5) days in advance of any hearing with notice to all parties.

The GAL shall be subject to the Pretrial Scheduling Order as set forth more specifically in the Order.

8.00 SEMINAR REQUIREMENT IN CONTESTED CUSTODY, VISITATION OR SUPPORT CASES

When custody, visitation or support is contested, the parties will be ordered to attend an educational seminar of no less than four hours duration pursuant to Va. Code § 20-103(A). Approved providers are listed on the Virginia Supreme Court's website at <http://webdev.courts.state.va.us/cgi-bin/parented/providers.cgi/g?153J>. Contact the individual seminar providers for times, dates and locations of the seminar. The parties will be required to file their certificate of completion of the seminar before the trial.

SECTION F: GUARDIANSHIP AND CONSERVATORSHIP FOR INCAPACITATED ADULTS PRACTICE GUIDELINES¹

(Adopted June 2023)

See Va. Code § 64.2-2000 et. seq.

1.00 GUARDIANS AND CONSERVATORS

There are two roles in managing the affairs of an incapacitated adult (the “Respondent”): Guardian and Conservator. The Guardian is responsible for decisions regarding the personal affairs of the incapacitated person including their care, health, safety, medical treatment, residence, social activities, etc. The Conservator manages the incapacitated person’s property, income and financial affairs. One person can serve in both roles or different people can be appointed to each role. Co-Guardians/Co-Conservators (two people serving in one role) may be appointed.

2.00 PRIOR TO FILING

2.01 Review the medical and anecdotal evidence of incapacity as defined in Va. Code § 64.2-2000, and any existing estate planning documents, including any powers of attorney, advance medical directives, wills and trusts. The Court must consider the availability of less restrictive alternatives, such as durable powers of attorney and/or trusts rather than Conservatorship and advance medical directives rather than Guardianship. See Va. Code §§ 64.2-2007 and 64.2-2009; and duties and powers of Guardian and Conservator Va. Code §§ 64.2-2019 and 64.2-2021.

2.02 Jurisdiction and Venue:

- A. The Court has jurisdiction if Virginia is the Respondent’s “home state” as defined in the Uniform Adult Guardianship and Protective Proceedings Jurisdiction Act unless the Court finds that an emergency exists. See Va. Code § 64.2-2100, et. seq.
- B. Proper venue is in the Circuit Court of the county or city in which the Respondent is located, is a resident or lived immediately prior to entering a medical facility or nursing home. If the Respondent is a nonresident, but owns real property in Virginia, file in the Circuit Court where the real property is located.

3.00 SURETY BOND

If the petition seeks the appointment of a Conservator, it is highly recommended that the petitioner determine in advance that the proposed Conservator (who may be the petitioner or someone else) will qualify for a surety bond in a sufficient amount (See below for further discussion about the appropriate amount of the bond and when surety is required). It is suggested that you contact the insurance company to determine in advance if the proposed Conservator will qualify for the bond. The insurance company providing the bond will require financial and other information from the proposed Conservator, including any bankruptcy filing and/or felony convictions.

4.00 PETITION

- 4.01 Any person may file a petition for appointment of a Guardian or Conservator, or both. It is filed with the Clerk in Circuit Court, Room 314 on the third floor of the Judicial Center. The petition can be styled as either In re: (Respondent's name) or Petitioner's Name vs. Respondent's Name. The original petition and two (2) copies for service should be filed if seeking service by the Sheriff. (See below regarding service of the petition by the Guardian ad litem appointed by the Court.) It is advisable to have a third copy date stamped with the case number, for your own files.
- 4.02 Va. Code § 64.2-2002 requires that the petition contain certain specified information including the Respondent's Social Security number (which must be done in a Private Addendum). Medical evaluations must also be filed by Private Addendum.
- 4.03 Va. Code § 64.2-2007(B) provides that Guardianship and Conservatorship petitions are to be heard within 120 days of filing unless postponed by the Court for good cause.
- 4.04 The Petition must also include a request for the appointment of a Guardian ad litem ("GAL") for the Respondent. Petitioner should submit an Order Appointing a Guardian ad litem for the Respondent along with the petition. When the petition and GAL order is filed, the clerk will log the case in, give it a case number and it will be assigned by the system to a particular Judge. The clerk will notify Chambers of the filing and the need to enter the GAL order. Petitioner may identify a GAL who is on the approved list and agreed to serve. If doing so, the Petitioner should submit two GAL orders, one appointing that attorney as GAL and one with a blank for the Judge to select an alternate attorney as GAL. Ultimately the Judge will make the decision as to who is appointed as GAL. The entered GAL order will be returned to the Civil Division, room 314, as soon as practicable. The clerk will then email both Petitioner's counsel and the GAL to notify them of the appointment of the GAL.

Practice Tip: The Virginia Supreme Court maintains a list of qualified GALs for Children and Incapacitated Persons to consult when proposing a GAL for appointment at www.vacourts.gov.

- 4.05 Petitioner must pay the filing fee. Fees and costs may later be reimbursed from the estate of the Respondent, if the estate is available and sufficient and such suit was brought in good faith for the benefit of the Respondent. If it is alleged under oath that the Respondent's estate is unavailable or insufficient, the Court, in its discretion, may determine the Petitioner to be indigent and waive service fees and costs. See Va. Code § 17.1-606.

5.00 NOTICE OF HEARING AND SERVICE ON THE RESPONDENT

- 5.01 A Statutory Notice of Hearing, including the hearing date, time and place must be personally served on the Respondent. The notice must advise the Respondent of their rights pursuant to Va. Code §§ 64.2-2006 and 2007 and must also contain a warning in 14-point type or larger bold print, that the Respondent can lose certain rights. See Va. Code § 64.2-2004. A Notice of Hearing personally served on the Respondent which meets the statutory requirements is jurisdictional.

Practice Tip: While service on the Respondent can be by the Sheriff, by private process server or by the GAL, it is best practice to have the GAL serve the Respondent with all required documents because the GAL is required to advise the Respondent in person of their statutory rights. The GAL can comply with this requirement at the time the GAL serves the Respondent with the required documents.

- 5.02 If the case necessitates a return date sooner than two weeks, counsel may contact Chambers and seek to expedite the entry of an Order appointing a GAL and set an expedited hearing date under the following circumstances: 1) In Petitions for appointment of a Guardian for a minor whose 18th birthday will occur prior to a return date of two weeks, 2) Petitioner reasonably believes that the Respondent's life or health is threatened, 3) or the Respondent will suffer irreparable harm due to financial exploitation.
- 5.03 Notice and a copy of the Petition must also be mailed by first class mail to the Respondent's spouse, adult children, parents and adult siblings--if they exist; or, if no such relatives can be identified by the Petitioner, to at least three other adult relatives (if they exist), at least seven (7) days prior to the hearing. The notice can be waived by the Court in an exigent circumstance. Petitioner must file a certificate of compliance with the service requirements of Va. Code § 64.2-2004 with the Court prior to the hearing.

All parties should be aware of a statutory change effective July 1, 2022 that changed the verbiage in the Notice and includes express provisions for notice to the Respondent's relatives. All prior samples/forms should be updated to include this new language.

- 5.04 After proper service on the Respondent, the matter should be set on a Friday, 10:30 a.m. Motion's Docket. If it can be heard in less than thirty (30) minutes, it will be heard that day. If it will take longer than thirty (30) minutes, the matter will be set on the trial docket. Note that the Respondent has a right to request that the matter be tried by a jury. If the matter is contested and the GAL deems it necessary, the GAL will recommend the appointment of counsel for the Respondent.

6.00 GUARDIAN AD LITEM (GAL)

- 6.01 A Guardian ad Litem is appointed in every case. The GAL must personally visit the Respondent and advise him/her of his/her rights. The GAL must be present at all proceedings. The GAL must file a written report with the Court, which includes, but is not limited to, whether the Court has jurisdiction, a certification that the Respondent has been advised of his/her rights, whether additional evaluation is necessary, recommendation as to whether a Guardian and/or Conservator should be appointed, recommending legal counsel be appointed for the Respondent if necessary, the appropriateness of the person proposed, and a recommendation as to the bond of the Guardian and/or Conservator. See Va. Code § 64.2-2003.

- 6.02 The GAL report should be filed with the Clerk and a courtesy copy delivered to Chambers the Tuesday before the Friday hearing on the matter. In the event that the GAL report is not filed in sufficient time in advance of the hearing for the Judge to review the report, the matter may be continued or delayed to give the Judge the opportunity to do so.

Practice Tip: It is best practice to have the GAL report filed at least seven (7) days in advance of the hearing. Should the GAL report contain health information subject to HIPAA regarding the individual the GAL report should be filed under seal in the Court's file, along with a praecipe indicating to all parties that the GAL report was filed under seal.

- 6.03 The source and amount of payment to the GAL must be addressed in the Order appointing the Guardian/Conservator. The GAL's fees are payable from the estate of the Respondent, if sufficient. If the Respondent is indigent, the Commonwealth of Virginia will pay the GAL's fees. See Va. Code §§ 64.2-2003 and 64.2-2008.

- 6.04 If the GAL's fees are to be paid by the Commonwealth, the GAL must submit a List of Allowances (Appendix Form F-1 List of Allowances (Form DC-40) electronically on the Electronic Voucher Payment System ("EVPS") on <https://eapps.courts.state.va.us/dc40/landing>. An accounting of the GAL's fees shall be submitted to the Court for review by the Judge at the time the Guardian/Conservator is appointed. See Va. Code § 64.2-2008. The DC-40 should be submitted in the EVPS system as soon as possible after the final disposition hearing so that the DC-40 may be sent to the Judge for review and approval.

7.00 COUNSEL

At the request of the Respondent or the GAL, the Court may appoint legal counsel for the Respondent if the Court determines that counsel is needed to protect the Respondent's interest. See Va. Code § 64.2-2006. Counsel's fees are fixed by the Court and paid from the Respondent's estate, unless the Respondent is indigent, in which case counsel's fees are paid by the Commonwealth. If the Commonwealth is paying, counsel must submit a List of Allowances (Appendix Form F-1 List of Allowances (Form DC-40), electronically on the Electronic Voucher Payment System ("EVPS") on eapps.courts.state.va.us. An accounting of Counsel's fees shall be submitted to the Court for review by the Judge at the time the Guardian/Conservator is appointed. See Va. Code § 64.2-2008. The DC-40 should be submitted in the EVPS system as soon as possible after the final disposition hearing so that the DC-40 may be sent to the Judge for review and approval.

8.00 EVALUATION REPORT

The evaluation report is prepared by a licensed physician, psychologist or other licensed professional skilled in the assessment and treatment of the physical or mental conditions of the Respondent. The report must be filed with the Court, under seal by Private Addendum, and provided to the GAL prior to the hearing. There are detailed requirements for the contents of the report. See Va. Code § 64.2-2005.

If an evaluation report cannot be obtained prior to the hearing date, Petitioner can ask the Court to order the Respondent to submit to an evaluation. In circumstances with good cause shown, the Court may proceed to appoint a Guardian and/or Conservator without a medical evaluation report.

9.00 HEARING

- 9.01 The Respondent is entitled to a jury trial, upon request and may compel the attendance of witnesses, present evidence and cross-examine witnesses. See Va. Code § 64.2-2007.
- 9.02 The hearing may be held at such convenient place as the Court directs, including the place where the Respondent is located. Any party requesting a hearing at a location other than the courthouse should specifically docket this request for hearing no later than two (2) weeks ahead of the trial date.
- 9.03 Pursuant to Va. Code § 64.2-2005(d), the medical report of evaluation shall be permissible as evidence of the facts stated therein and the results of the examination or evaluation unless counsel for the Respondent or the GAL objects.
- 9.04 The Respondent is entitled to be at the hearing and must be present if the GAL or the Respondent so requests.

- 9.05 The proposed Guardian/Conservator must be present at the hearing except for good cause shown.
- 9.06 The evidentiary standard is clear and convincing evidence. Va. Code § 64.2-2007(D).

10.00 ORDER OF APPOINTMENT

- 10.01 The Order must contain specific information. See Va. Code § 64.2-2009.
- 10.02 The Guardian ad litem must make a recommendation as to the amount of the bond for the Guardian and Conservator. The Order must specify a bond for both the Conservator and the Guardian. Bond for the Guardian is without surety and typically is set at $1,000. Bond for the Conservator may be without surety if the bond is less than $25,000. See Va. Code § 64.2-1411. Usually the Conservator's bond will be with surety. Bond is typically set at one and a third (1.3) times the value of the estate under the Conservator's control. The estate includes both the Respondent's assets and one year of income. Only the income which is being managed by the Conservator, in that capacity, is to be included in the bond amount (for example, monthly Social Security benefits for which there is a Representative Payee (which may or may not be the Conservator) and money held in a Trust is usually excluded).
- 10.03 The Conservator's powers are set forth in Va. Code § 64.2-2011 and § 64.2-105. The value of real estate must be included when setting the bond unless the power of sale is restricted in the Order.

11.00 QUALIFICATION

- 11.01 The Guardian/Conservator must qualify before the Clerk of the Probate Division of Circuit Court by scheduling an appointment in order to complete the qualification process. If arranged with the Probate Clerk in advance, the appointment can often be scheduled on the same date as the hearing. If an appointment has not been scheduled with the Clerk in advance, it is extremely unlikely that the Guardian/Conservator will be able to qualify on the date of the hearing.
- 11.02 If a surety bond will be required, it is recommended to arrange for the bond ahead of time. No person may qualify as Conservator until any required surety bond is in place.
- 11.03 The Clerk will issue separate certificates of qualification for the Guardian and the Conservator, if they are different people and one certificate if they are the same person. The first certificate is free. Additional copies of the certificates can be obtained for a nominal fee, unless the Respondent is indigent (in which case, the certificates are free).

11.04 At the time the Guardian/Conservator qualifies, the Probate Division will assign a Fiduciary number to the matter and the "CL" case will be closed.

12.00 STANDBY GUARDIAN OR CONSERVATOR FOR INCAPACITATED PERSONS

At the time of filing the initial petition for appointment or thereafter, one or both parents, one or more children, or the legal guardian of an incapacitated person, may petition the Court, to appoint a standby Guardian and/or Conservator for the incapacitated person. See Va. Code § 64.2-2013.

13.00 RESTORATION, MODIFICATION OR TERMINATION

Upon petition by the Respondent, the Guardian or Conservator, or any other person, or on motion of the Court, the Respondent can be restored to capacity, or the Guardianship or Conservatorship modified or terminated, or the Guardian or Conservator removed and/or replaced. See Va. Code § 64.2-2012.

In the case of a petition for modification to expand the scope of a Guardianship or Conservatorship, all of the requirements related to an original petition apply.

1.00 CRIMINAL PROCEDURE

1.01 Grand Jury:

www.pwcva.gov/department/circuit-court/court-calendar

The Grand Jury meets the first Monday of every month. When a legal holiday falls on the first Monday of a given month, the Grand Jury meets on the next regular business day following the holiday. Neither the defendant nor defense counsel appear at Grand Jury hearings.

1.02 Waiver of Grand Jury:

A defendant may waive presentment of an indictment at the preliminary hearing stage in District Court. Counsel must go to the Circuit Court Clerk's Criminal Division and obtain a waiver form (Appendix Form G-12 Waiver of Presentment to Grand Jury Form) as well as a predetermined Monday through Thursday plea date from the Clerk. Counsel must then present that form to the District Court Judge at the time of the preliminary hearing. Such cases will be set for plea administratively by the Circuit Court Clerk's Office and will not go through Term Day.

1.03 Criminal Term Day (Docket Call):

www.pwcva.gov/department/circuit-court/criminal-docket-call

- A. Criminal Term Day begins at 10:00 a.m. on the next court day following the meeting of the Grand Jury.
- B. All attorneys of record, retained or appointed, must be present for the docket call. Defendants who are on bond must be present at the docket call. Attorneys should be prepared with the necessary information to set the case, including: speedy trial, trial information, available dates, length of trial, whether a jury is requested, and whether multiple charges can be consolidated for trial.
- C. At Criminal Term Day, the Court will request that the defendant, through counsel, and the Commonwealth's Attorney choose or waive a jury trial and select the trial date. Trials are scheduled to begin on Mondays, Tuesdays and Wednesdays only. Jury trials that will take more than one day should, if possible, be scheduled to begin on a Monday.
- D. At Criminal Term Day, the Court sets guilty pleas Monday through Thursday. The Court controls the number of guilty pleas on a given day.

- E. Continuances of trial dates are discouraged and will not be granted except for good cause shown. Counsel are advised to select court dates with care to allow sufficient time for the argument of necessary motions. Continuances cannot be accomplished solely by agreement of counsel. Counsel must seek the Court's permission for a continuance. Such a motion should be docketed in advance of trial and must be heard on the record.
- F. For information concerning entry of agreed discovery orders at Criminal Term Day, please see Section 2.02 below.

1.04 Interpreters:

Please see Section J within this manual regarding interpreters.

1.05 Court Reporters:

The Court provides for verbatim reporting of all Criminal matters. See also the subsection regarding audio recording of misdemeanor trials in Section K of this manual, as well as Va. Code § 17.1-128.

2.00 CRIMINAL MOTIONS

2.01 Motions Day:

www.pwcva.gov/departments/circuit-court/criminal-motions

The criminal motions docket is heard on Friday mornings beginning at 9:00 a.m. Counsel must file a notice or praecipe asking that the motions be heard no later than the Friday preceding the Friday to be heard. There is a maximum ten (10) minute time limitation for motions heard on a regular Friday Motions Day. If a motion will take longer than ten (10) minutes for the Court to hear, counsel should contact Judges' Chambers (703-792-6171) to schedule a date certain. If counsel cannot agree whether a matter can be heard in ten (10) minutes or fewer, they should indicate this at the call of the docket and the Court will either grant time for argument to determine whether the motion can be heard on the regular docket, or, in its discretion, will set a date certain.

On Friday morning, the docket and courtroom assignments are posted on the third floor docket monitors next to the elevators.

2.02 Discovery Motions:

Discovery motions should be filed and docketed as soon as practicable, to allow the Commonwealth's Attorney to respond no later than sixty (60) days after the entry of the order. Reciprocal discovery by the defense should be filed consistent with the agreed order and Va. Supreme Court Rule 3A:11. Agreed discovery orders, without the need for docketing, may be filed. The original and one copy should be delivered to the Office of the Commonwealth's Attorney, which will endorse and file the motion. Such discovery answers will be due sixty (60) days after the entry of the order, with reciprocal answers due at least sixty (60) days before trial. Agreed orders must strictly conform to Rule 3A:11 of the Va. Supreme Court Rules, as well as this Court's timelines. Contested requests for discovery must be docketed for a hearing on the Friday Motions Docket. Model orders can be found in the web links at www.pwcva.gov/departments/circuit-court/criminal-forms-fees (Appendix Form G-1 Order for Discovery). Agreed discovery orders are also available at Term Day and should be entered at that time.

2.03 Motions in Limine:

If possible, motions in limine that will take fewer than ten (10) minutes to hear should be presented on a Friday Motions Day before trial. All others should be filed in the same manner as motions to suppress noted below.

2.04 Motions to Suppress and Other Motions Expected to Exceed 10 Minutes:

Motions to suppress or dismiss are heard on Thursdays starting as early as 9:00 a.m. unless otherwise set by the Court. Such motions must be filed before the hearing will be scheduled. Counsel must contact Chambers to obtain a date for the motion to be heard and notice any motions subject to the provisions of Va. Code § 19.2-266.2 for hearing at least seven (7) days in advance of the trial date. Such motions will not be heard the day of trial.

2.05 Bond Motions:

Bond motions and bond appeals may be noticed for a hearing without leave of court at 9:30 a.m. Monday through Friday. Bond motions and bond appeals filed by noon will be heard as soon as the next court day. Bond motions filed after noon will be heard as soon as the second court day following the filing of such request.

An appeal of a bond decision from either of our District Courts can now be heard in Circuit Court the next business day. The practice for noting your appeal to be heard the next day is as follows:

- A. Counsel must note his/her client's appeal in the appropriate District Court Clerk's office by noon.
- B. At the District Court Clerk's window, the clerk will make a copy of the following documents and will give said copies to counsel:
 - 1. The Notice of Appeal (a total of three copies of the Notice of Appeal should be given to counsel).
 - 2. The Warrant(s).
 - 3. The Criminal Compliant; and
 - 4. The Magistrate's checklist (if it's in the District Court's file).
- C. Counsel, not the clerk's office, will then immediately take these documents to the Circuit Court Criminal Clerk's window. A hearing for this appeal will be docketed for the next business day. All documents must be filed with the Circuit Court Criminal Clerk's Office no later than 12:15 p.m. Any appeal received by the Criminal Clerk's Office after 12:15 p.m. will be docketed two business days in the future.
- D. Counsel for the Appellant must provide the Commonwealth's Office (or in the event the Commonwealth is appealing a bond that was granted, the Commonwealth must provide to defense counsel) the second copy of the Notice of Appeal. Appellant's counsel will retain the third copy of the Notice of Appeal for his/her records.

Practice Tip: At the bond appeals hearing counsel should be prepared to provide the Court with the Defendant's Pretrial Risk Assessment from District Court.

3.00 GUILTY PLEAS

3.01 Plea Forms:

Plea forms for felony guilty pleas (Appendix Form G-2 Plea of Guilty to a Felony), felony guilty plea pursuant to North Carolina v. Alford, 400 U.S. 25 (1970) (Appendix Form G-3 of Guilty to a Felony - Alford), plea agreement (Appendix Form G-4 Plea of Guilty to a Felony (Plea Agreement pursuant to Va. Sup. Ct. 3A:8(c)(1)(c), Plea of No Contest or Nolo Contendere (Appendix Form G-5 Plea of No Contest or Nolo Contendere), and guilty pleas to misdemeanors (Appendix Form G-6 Plea of Guilty to a Misdemeanor) are available in the Circuit Court Clerk's Criminal Division, Room 310, and online at www.pwcva.gov/departments/circuit-court/criminal-forms-fees, and should be prepared by the assigned attorney for the Commonwealth prior to court.

Counsel should thoroughly review plea forms with the defendant prior to the hearing. Court time is not allotted for such review nor can incarcerated persons be made easily available to meet with counsel on the morning of court.

3.02 Sentencing Recommendations and Agreements:

If an agreed recommendation or plea agreement has been reached regarding the sentence to be imposed, ensure that the agreement is completely and accurately reflected on the plea form when endorsed by the defendant, defense counsel, and the Commonwealth's Attorney. Please note that pursuant to Va. Code § 19.2-254, if a plea agreement is rejected by a particular Judge, that Judge shall immediately recuse himself or herself, and all future matters in that case must be heard by another Judge unless the parties agree otherwise. All plea agreements and recommendations shall be handled in accordance with Virginia Supreme Court Rule 3A:8.

3.03 Pre-Sentence Investigation and Report:

If a pre-sentence investigation report ("PSR") is ordered, the sentencing hearing will be scheduled on that Judge's sentencing day (normally eight (8) to twelve (12) weeks after the plea or conviction date for a short form PSR, and twelve (12) to fourteen (14) weeks for a long form PSR). A PSR can be waived on the record by agreement of the parties if approved by the Court. See Va. Code § 19.2-299.

3.04 Sentencing at the Time of Plea:

With the concurrence of the Court, felony cases may be sentenced at the time of a plea of guilty if the defendant and Commonwealth's Attorney waive preparation of a PSR and the parties stipulate to agreed sentencing guidelines, which must be presented to the Court by the attorney for the Commonwealth at that time. See Va. Code § 19.2-299. Sentencing at the time of plea should only occur in cases with specific recommendations or in cases in which only very brief argument is required.

3.05 Plea in Advance of Trial:

If defense counsel and the Commonwealth's Attorney reach an agreed plea and recommendation or plea agreement in advance of trial, an earlier plea date may be requested and is encouraged. A plea in advance of the scheduled trial date should be docketed as soon as the status of the case has changed in order to allow for the removal of the trial. Until a plea is entered and accepted, the trial will proceed as scheduled.

3.06 Drug Court:

The Prince William County Circuit Court has established a Drug Court with the aims of (i) reducing drug addiction and drug dependency among offenders; (ii) reducing recidivism; (iii) reducing drug-related court workloads; (iv) increasing personal, familial and societal accountability among offenders; and (v) promoting effective planning and use of resources among the criminal justice system and community agencies.

The Drug Court is governed by the provisions of the Drug Treatment Court Act and counsel should familiarize themselves with the provisions of Va. Code § 18.2-254.1

If counsel has a client whose case they believe would be appropriate for Drug Court participation they should communicate with the Commonwealth's Attorney's office. The Drug Court team can be reached at cwdrugcourt@pwcgov.org.

If the Commonwealth agrees that the case would be suitable for Drug Court the next step is to complete and submit the Prince William County Drug Court Referral Form and submit it for consideration to Palinda Gaines at pgaines@vacourts.gov.

If the case is approved the next step is to set the case for entry of plea pursuant to the provisions of 3.02.

Once a defendant is enrolled in the Drug Court defense counsel's role is generally concluded. At least one member of the Public Defender's Office will attend all status hearings and case staffing meetings and make recommendations to the Team concerning the progress of participants and any sanctions or incentives to be imposed. The Public Defender will advocate on behalf of every Drug Court defendant at status hearings and case staffing meetings. Only if a client is facing termination from Drug Court will the client's attorney be notified and will step back into the representation to advocate on behalf of their client in the adversarial hearing.

Additional information regarding the Drug Court program can be obtained in the Prince William Drug Treatment Court Participant Handbook.

4.00 INCIDENTS OF CRIMINAL TRIAL

4.01 Jury Information:

The pre-panel jury list is available from the Jury Clerk in the Jury Assembly Room, and can be requested three (3) full business days before trial. The list will include the name, age, address, occupation and employer of each person on the panel. Information regarding the particular panel assigned to a case will be available on the morning of trial. See also Va. Code § 8.01-353.

For further information, contact the Jury Clerk at pwcjury@vacourts.gov or 703-792-6047.

4.02 Pretrial Conferences:

Pretrial Conferences are to be heard at 1:00 two (2) Wednesdays prior to the first day of a criminal jury trial. Such conferences will be scheduled by the Court at time the case is set for a jury trial.

At the Pretrial Conference, counsel for both the Commonwealth and Defense should be prepared to address the following:

- A. Case status
 - 1. If the case has resolved, the matter shall be set for a plea before the date of the scheduled jury to avoid unnecessary summons of jurors and/or a continuance.
 - 2. Whether counsel for either side is seeking a continuance (if so, notice to the Court and opposing counsel should be put in writing).
- B. Interpreter needs
- C. Audio-visual or technology needs
- D. Outstanding discovery or Brady issues
- E. Exchange of jury instructions
- F. Ability of jurors to utilize taking notes
- G. Any other specialized needs or requests for the particular case

4.03 Time Estimates:

Counsel will receive an email or call from Judges' Chambers approximately two (2) weeks before trial requesting an estimate of the time necessary for trial and confirming that a jury, if one was previously requested, is still required. The week before trial, counsel will receive a second call asking for confirmation of the time estimate. It is essential that counsel promptly return calls from Chambers for time estimates. The number reserved for this purpose is 703-792-6013. (This is not a general number for use in calling Chambers, but rather reserved for time estimates and the like for upcoming trials.) Counsel who know they will be unavailable when the call may come in should arrange for staff to provide time estimate information to Chambers.

Cases are generally assigned to Judges on the afternoon preceding the trial based on availability and counsel's time estimates. Make every effort to provide an accurate time estimate. Failure to provide an accurate time estimate can severely disrupt the Court's schedule and may result in your case being heard at the end of the docket.

When the status of a case changes, such as by reaching an agreed recommendation for sentence or a plea agreement, it is counsel's responsibility to notify Chambers as soon as possible at 703-792-6171.

4.04 Docket Information:

The trial docket is posted on the monitors next to the elevators by 9:00 a.m., as well as online on the Court Case Status and Information Website at: <http://www.courts.state.va.us/caseinfo/home.html>.

4.05 Presentation of Evidence:

A. Exhibits:

Prior to trial or during a break, counsel should tender exhibits to the clerk for marking. Counsel should refer to the exhibit number when showing an exhibit to a witness. Please see Section K concerning courtroom technology. It is counsel's duty to make sure the record accurately reflects the evidence; recordings, drawings, highlights, notations, etc., must be preserved for the record.

Any evidence sought to be admitted in digital or electronic recorded format (including, but not limited to video and audio recording of any kind) must be provided in USB, Flash Drive or Thumb Drive format when it is offered.

B. Views:

Counsel who intend to request that a jury or Judge view a scene should file a motion as far in advance as practicable, but not less than fourteen (14) days before the day of trial so that appropriate arrangements can be made by the Sheriff's Department and the Court.

4.06 Jury Instructions:

The Court encourages counsel to refer to the publication "Model Jury Instructions" for drafting assistance. Proposed instructions should be exchanged pursuant to the date reflected in the Pretrial Conference order and may be exchanged electronically. Jury instructions should be prepared on 8 1/2" X 11" paper with the Commonwealth's Attorney numbering his or her instructions and the defendant lettering his or her instructions. Counsel should provide the Court with two sets of proposed instructions: one with supporting citations and one without citations to be given to the jury.

Argument will normally be heard on the Commonwealth's instructions first, then proceed to any instructions proposed by the defense that remain at issue.

If either counsel proposes a non-model jury instruction, they must provide supporting case law. Such instructions must be based on existing case law or a good faith attempt to expand or modify existing precedent.

4.07 Trial Briefs:

The Court does not require trial briefs. Counsel who intend to cite unusual case law may wish to make copies of the case(s) to provide to the Court, the Commonwealth's Attorney, and any joined co-defendants.

4.08 Restitution and DC-317 Forms:

Restitution forms should be completed and available before the defendant is sentenced. They are to be presented to the Court at the time of sentencing.

DC-317 and DC-317-S2 forms will be provided by the Commonwealth's Attorney (Appendix Form G-7 Order for Restitution (Form DC-317) and Appendix Form G-8 Supplemental Sheet to Order for Restitution for Co-Defendant Information (Form DC-317-S2)) Form DC-317-S2 must also be submitted in any cases with joint and several co-defendant liability. The Commonwealth is required to submit form DC-317-S1 concerning victim information in all cases where restitution is due. Pursuant to Va. Code § 19.2-305.1, please note that a defendant cannot be placed on probation nor have any portion of his or her sentence suspended unless restitution is addressed.

4.09 Court Clothes for Incarcerated Defendants:

Counsel for incarcerated defendants can provide their clients with suitable attire to wear during any trial by jury. If the incarcerated person requires only one court outfit, that outfit may be taken to the property officer at the Adult Detention Center (ADC) Monday-Friday between 8:30 a.m. and 3:30 p.m. The clothing can be dropped off no earlier than one week prior to the start of the trial. Only those items normally approved for court appearances will be accepted.

The Sheriff's department and representative from the ADC have met and devised the following policy to accommodate multi-day litigation for incarcerated individuals who would like different clothing on each day of their jury trial. The policy is as follows:

1. The inmate must have a verified multi-day jury trial.
2. The inmate must agree to the clothing being exchanged daily.

3. Prior to day one of the trial two (2) set of court clothes may be brought into the ADC. They must be brought in Monday-Friday between 8:30 a.m. and 3:30 p.m. through the property officer at the ADC. The clothing can be dropped off no earlier than one week prior to the start of the trial. Only those items normally approved for court appearance will be accepted.
4. On day two of the trial, and each day thereafter, the used set of clothing may be exchanged for one new set. This must be done through the property officer on Monday-Friday between 8:30 a.m. and 3:30 p.m. They will only exchange one used set for one new set.
5. At the conclusion of the trial, both sets of court clothes need to be picked up within two (2) weeks of the trial. The inmate may specify a particular person at this time to pick up the clothing.

4.10 Court-Appointed Counsel Payment Voucher Process:

In an effort to expedite the Court's processing of attorney invoices and the tender of payment to attorneys for services rendered to indigent defendants, the court requests that all attorneys promptly submit requests for payments pursuant to Va. Code § 19.2-163. Requests for payment may be made online at <https://eapps.courts.state.va.us/dc40/landing>. Court-Appointed attorneys are also encouraged to file their vouchers electronically through the Electronic Voucher Payment System, EVPS.

5.00 EXPUNGEMENT OF CRIMINAL RECORDS

5.01 Felony v. Misdemeanor Expungement:

Expungement of criminal records statutes are found at Va. Code §§ 19.2 -392.1 to 392.4. Please note that there are different requirements for felony and misdemeanor expungements. Criminal convictions cannot be expunged.

5.02 Filing and Expungement Process:

Sample forms for expungement may be found at the Civil Clerk's Office window on the 3rd Floor or online at www.courts.state.va.us/forms/circuit/civil.html. An original petition and at least three (3) copies of the petition and two (2) copies of the proposed order must be provided to the Clerk's office at the time of filing. There will be a filing fee and service fee, both of which must be paid at the time of filing. You should check with the Clerk's office for the amount of each of those fees.

It is helpful to deliver a copy of the petition with the case number provided by the Clerk to the Commonwealth's Attorney's office in room 214.

The Petitioner will take two copies of the petition for expungement, along with $10 and two acceptable forms of identification, to a law enforcement agency. The law enforcement agency will take the $10 fingerprinting fee and two copies of the Petition, and verify the Petitioner's identify with the two forms of identification. The Petitioner will be fingerprinted and the law enforcement agency will send the fingerprints and petition to the Virginia State Police for a criminal history report.

It will take approximately six (6) weeks after having fingerprints taken for the case to be ready for a court hearing. The court hearing should be scheduled by the Petitioner through the Civil Clerk's office for a Friday motions Docket at 9:00 a.m. by praecipe.

NOTE: It is prudent to check with the Clerk's office, no sooner than four weeks after the order was entered, to make sure the record has been expunged.

SECTION H: PROBATE OFFICE PRACTICE GUIDELINES

(Adopted June 2023)

Information is also available at www.pwcva.gov/probate
703-792-5587

1.00 OFFICE INFORMATION

The Probate office is in room 308, located in the back of the Law Library. The office is open from 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday. The last probate appointment of the day is at 3:00 p.m. Before a probate appointment can be set, a Probate Pre-Appointment Worksheet (Appendix Form H-1 Probate Pre-Appointment Worksheet) must be completed and submitted to the Clerk's Office. The Worksheet is available on the Probate Office website at www.pwcva.gov/probate

2.00 QUALIFICATION OF PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVE

Generally, the following information is required:

- A. An estimated value of all assets, both personal and real property, titled in the name of the decedent for the probate tax return and setting of the bond amount.
- B. A list containing the names, addresses, ages, and degree of kinship (i.e., spouse, son, brother, etc.) of all heirs of the estate. If there is a surviving spouse and no children from a previous marriage, only the surviving spouse needs to be listed.
- C. The name, address, and telephone number of a bonding agent (if surety is not waived under the Will and if Counsel chooses to make such arrangements independently). The bonding agent must be present for the appointment.
- D. The original Will and proof of same if it is not self-proving. An original will is self-proving if it contains a notarized self-proving affidavit or the self-proving form executed as part of the will during the testator's lifetime. (An affidavit or the self-proving form, if executed after the testator's demise or without the testator's participation, is insufficient).

An original will, if it is not self-proving, can be proved by notarized deposition forms filed by the witnesses. Generally, it is not necessary for the witnesses to appear in person. In the case of holographic wills, however, it is necessary for two individuals familiar with the testator's handwriting and signature, who will not benefit in any way from the will as beneficiaries, to file a notarized deposition to a holographic will or physically appear and testify under oath.

- E. The fees and taxes of probate, recording of the Will, qualification, and certificates of qualification, as the case may be.

PLEASE NOTE that the qualification of a personal representative for the purpose of pursuing a wrongful death action is treated differently from other qualifications. Individuals seeking such a qualification should notify the Clerk's Office before filing an action to best expedite the qualification process. See Va. Code § 8.01-50, et seq.

3.00 FEES

Payment for Probate taxes and fees are accepted in the form of cash, check, money order and debit or credit card. A surcharge is added for use of credit or debit cards. Please check with the Clerk's Office for applicable fees. Probate fees are based on the size of the probate estate and Prince William County does not assess any county tax on probate filings.

4.00 SURETY BONDS

www.pwcva.org/bondsurety

If a surety bond is required for a fiduciary to qualify, the clerk can provide a list of fiduciary bond agents who have power of attorney recorded with Prince William. The current list is available on the Clerk's Office website at www.pwcva.org/bondsurety. Alternatively, counsel is free to make arrangements independently. If a surety bond is required, the bond must be in place before the Clerk will issue certificates of qualification. Surety bond must be pre-approved before the appointment.

5.00 COMMISSIONERS OF ACCOUNTS

At the conclusion of a probate qualification, the case will be given a fiduciary file number and a Circuit Court Case file number. The fiduciary may be assigned to one of the two Commissioners of Accounts serving the Prince William County Circuit Court. The Commissioners of Accounts supervise the administration of the estate after the qualification of the personal representative. The Commissioners are as follows:

Timothy A. Cope
7915 Lake Manassas Dr.
Gainesville, VA 20155
(703) 753-4804

Linda J. Lonas
9315 Grant Ave, P.O. Box 107
Manassas, VA 20108
(703) 368-5812

For additional information about the Commissioners of Accounts, see the Clerk's Office website at www.pwcva.org/commissioner.

703-792-6035

The Land Records Division of the Clerk's Office is located in room 300 and is open between the hours of 8:30 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday. Please note, however, that documents may only be recorded until 4:00 p.m. each day.

1.00 RESEARCHING A DOCUMENT

Computers are available in the Law Library and Kiosks are available outside of Room 300 to obtain and search county and city land records. If you require assistance, please ask court personnel for assistance. For online access to land records, see Section 3.0 below.

2.00 RECORDING A DOCUMENT

2.01. Where to Record:

To record in person, please go to the recording counter located in Room 300.

The Circuit Court Clerk's Office also offers Remote Electronic Filing of Land Records. In order to participate, please select an authorized e-recording vendor found at www.pwcva.gov/circuit-court/land-records-erecording

2.02 Preliminaries:

Initially, a deputy clerk will ensure that the property which is the subject of the recordation is located in the County of Prince William or Cities of Manassas or Manassas Park and that the document to be recorded has been signed and notarized as required by law.

2.03 Recordation and Fee Payment:

After a deputy clerk has confirmed that the prerequisites have been met, and that the appropriate fees have been paid, the document is recorded. This process generates an instrument number, which is provided to the person who presented the document for recordation. The deputy clerk will then issue a computer-generated receipt noting the recordation and instrument number of the document.

Payment must be in cash, check or credit card. Counsel can confirm current recordation fees by checking the Clerk's website at www.pwcva.gov/lrfees. A convenience fee is added to all transactions where payment is made by credit or debit card.

2.04 Return Address:

All documents must bear the address to which the original should be returned. Counsel should provide a self-addressed, stamped envelope in which the clerk can return the original document after completion of the recordation process or notate assigned attorney box number on the face of the document. The original will be returned to address provided on the document if neither is provided. The Clerk's Office does not retain any recorded documents.

3.00 ONLINE ACCESS TO LAND RECORDS MANAGEMENT SYSTEMS (LRMS)

The Clerk's Office offers two ways to access LRMS:

3.01. Frequent Users:

Remote Access is available via the Internet by subscription for an annual fee. Information about this service can be found on the Clerk's website at www.pwcva.gov/lrms.

3.02. Occasional Users:

There is a service to enable those who want to obtain an occasional copy of a recorded document from the convenience of their office or home. Searching the index is free. If you would like to view or print a document, there is a fee of $.50 per image. In addition, a convenience fee of $2.00 will be added at the time of purchase. Information about this service can be found on the Clerk's website at www.pwcva.gov/occasionaluser.

SECTION J: INTERPRETERS

(Adopted June 2023)

1.00 LANGUAGE ACCESS SERVICES

Language access services for limited English proficient (LEP) parties, including sign language, are available in all court proceedings. The Supreme Court of Virginia provides interpreters in civil and criminal cases at no cost, therefore it is not necessary to privately coordinate interpreters. Only court-certified interpreters will be allowed to translate for the record. Foreign Language Interpreter Request Forms may be obtained through the Criminal and Civil Clerks' Offices, as well as in the appendix of this manual (Appendix Form J-1 Foreign Language Interpreter Request Form).

2.00 NOTIFICATION REQUIREMENTS

Interpreter requests should be made at least two (2) weeks in advance by submitting a Foreign Language Interpreter Request Form. Ideally, the language need should be identified at the Pretrial Conference or Term Day. New request forms are necessary at each continuance or subsequent court date. Request forms should specify if interpretation is needed for the parties or only for witnesses. When interpreters have been requested for a case and it becomes evident that they will not be needed, staff interpreters should be notified three business days in advance in order to cancel the request and avoid unnecessary costs.

3.00 CONTACT INFORMATION

To contact the Interpreters Office, please email schedulefls@vacourts.gov

To make a request for a sign language interpreter please contact the Virginia Courts' ADA coordinator at adacoordinator@vacourts.gov

SECTION K: COURTROOM TECHNOLOGY

(Adopted June 2023)

1.00 AVAILABLE TECHNOLOGY

Each Courtroom is outfitted with televisions and soundbars. These television monitors are available for use in both criminal and civil cases. Please be aware that if you want to use the monitors, you must bring your own device to connect to them. Each courtroom has a set of adaptors to allow usage of the systems. The adaptors can also fit many, but not all, types of cellular phones and tablet computers, as well as document cameras and other devices needed for the presentation of evidence.

2.00 CONNECTING YOUR DEVICE

To link your device with the monitor, insert the adaptor located on the courtroom clerk's desk into your device. The controllers for the television and soundbar are also located on the courtroom clerk's desk. Make sure both the television and soundbar are on, and that your device is plugged into the appropriate adaptor. Each monitor is preset for the appropriate configuration, so do not change any settings.

It is required to prearrange a time to set up your device and make sure the settings meet your desired use. Parties are welcome to bring their own audiovisual equipment and/or staff. Parties are required to contact the Sheriff's Office in advance to set up such equipment before trial. Proceedings will not be delayed for technical difficulties. Counsel are strongly advised to have a backup plan in the event the monitors do not function with your device(s).

3.00 PRESERVING THE RECORD

It is the responsibility of the parties to introduce items into evidence that are capable of being indexed and scanned into the Clerk's Office Imaging System. The Clerk's Office can only scan images from 8 1/2" by 11" paper. If you plan to use items larger than that, submit a smaller version of the image to be included in the record. The Clerk's Office has the ability to upload electronic files from CD/DVDs that are in PDF format. All other digital files cannot be uploaded and made part of the electronic record. If you have any questions about what items can or cannot be used please contact the Clerk's Office at circuitcourt@pwcgov.org prior to trial.

4.00 MISCELLANEOUS INFORMATION

For information on audio recording of proceedings, please see Section G (Criminal Practice) and Section D (Civil Practice) of this Manual. See Section L (Security) of this Manual for information regarding bringing cellular phones and other devices with cameras into the courthouse.

If there are any questions, please contact the Sheriff's Office at 703-792-6070, or the Circuit Court Chambers at 703-792-6171.

5.00 TESTING IT EQUIPMENT

Contact Judges' Chambers to arrange a day and time, prior to your trial, to test your audiovisual equipment/laptop and/or thumb drive to make sure the settings meet your desired needs with our courtroom equipment.

Testing your equipment is highly recommended because proceedings will not be delayed for technical difficulties. Counsel are strongly advised to have a backup plan in the event the monitors do not function with your device(s). Contact chambers at 703-792-6171.

SECTION L: SECURITY GUIDELINES

(Adopted June 2023)

1.00 COURTHOUSE SECURITY

The Sheriff is responsible for providing security to the Judicial Center, satellite offices of the Court, and courtrooms. This includes providing security for the public, courthouse personnel and inmates. When the courthouse is open to the public, everyone entering the courthouse is required to pass through a security checkpoint which may include the use of metal and explosive detection equipment, search of bags or containers, the search of the individual and any other measures deemed appropriate by the Sheriff. People entering or inside court rooms may be asked to leave if they are disruptive, disorderly, inappropriately dressed or for any other reason, if the Judge or deputy determines that their presence may disrupt or interfere with the orderly conduct of court business. The Sheriff will address and investigate threats, safety, and security concerns at the Judicial Center and in the courtrooms. You should alert any deputy of safety or security issues that you see. If you see anything of concern, say something. Deputies are available to escort anyone concerned about their safety at the Judicial Center. Please note that the Judicial Center has recently added additional safety measures to the parking areas such as emergency call stations, cameras and improved lighting.

To apply for an Attorney Identification Badge (ID Badge) members of the State Bar should go to the Sheriff's administration office. They will be required to present their Virginia State Bar card and a state issued driver's license or passport. Applicants will be required to complete an application and agree to abide by the rules by the Sheriff for the privilege of using the ID badge to access the Judicial Center. The ID may then be displayed to enter the courthouse and bypass the security screening stations. Attorneys should not expect to be recognized by the deputies if not displaying the ID. Attorneys should keep in mind that they will still be subject to security screening and will be required to pass through the security checkpoint at random times and for special security situations.

The following rules apply to members of the bar while in the courthouse:

On day two of the trial, and each day thereafter, the used set of clothing may be exchanged for one new set. Again, this exchange must occur between 8:30 am-3:30 pm Monday – Friday. At the conclusion of the trial, both sets of court clothes need to be picked up within 2 weeks of the trial. The inmate may specify a particular person at this time to pick up the clothing.

- G. Encourage your clients to dress appropriately;
- H. Please use the main lobby entrance after hours. Dial x6949 on the outside phone to alert the deputy of your presence; and

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR THE 31ST JUDICIAL CIRCUITSTANDING ORDER ESTABLISHING PROCEDURES
FOR ENTRY OF PRETRIAL SCHEDULING ORDERS
AND SETTING PRETRIAL CONFERENCES IN CERTAIN CASES

In an effort to more efficiently manage the trial docket it is hereby ORDERED that contemporaneously with setting the trial date a Pretrial Scheduling Order shall be entered pursuant to Rule 1:18 in every civil case set for trial by jury and in all contested domestic relations cases. In addition, a Pretrial Conference to be held pursuant to Rules 1:19 and 4:13 will be scheduled all such cases at the time the Pretrial Scheduling Order is entered. A Pretrial Scheduling Order may be entered and a Pretrial Conference may be scheduled in any other case in the discretion of the court. Contested domestic relations cases include, but are not limited to, all cases involving contested grounds of divorce, custody, visitation, child support, spousal support and/or equitable distribution, including any such cases appealed to this court. The Pretrial Conference shall be held approximately 30 to 45 days before the trial.

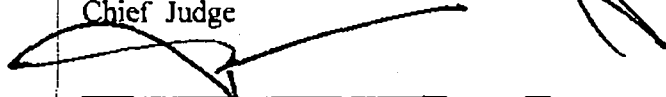

The following rules apply to all Pretrial Conferences: All counsel shall attend the Pretrial Conference in person unless excused for hardship by a judge of this court. In all contested domestic relations cases, the parties shall also attend the conference in person unless excused for hardship by a judge of this court. Any request to be excused from attending the conference in person for hardship must be made in writing explaining the reasons for the request and filed with the court at least 10 days in advance of the conference with a courtesy copy to Judges Chambers. A judge will enter an order granting or denying the request. If the request is granted, the order will require counsel and/or the party to appear by telephone at the conference.

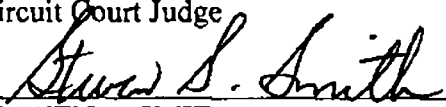

At the Pretrial Conference, counsel and any pro se parties shall be prepared to address those items listed in Rules 1:19 and 4:13 of the Rules of the Supreme Court of Virginia and in the Pretrial Conference Agenda which is attached hereto and incorporated herein

IN THE THIRTY-FIRST JUDICIAL CIRCUIT COURT

Plaintiff,

Case No. _____

Defendants.

UNIFORM PRETRIAL SCHEDULING ORDER

It is ORDERED that:

I. Trial: The trial date is _____ at 10:00 am ☐ with a jury ☐ without a jury. The estimated length of trial is _____.

II. Pretrial Conference: A Pretrial Conference is scheduled for Wednesday (if Jury), or Thursday (if Non-Jury), _____ at 1:00 p.m. The Pretrial Conference will be conducted in accordance with Rule 4:13 of the Rules of the Supreme Court of Virginia. Counsel shall be prepared to address the items listed in Rule 4:13.

III. Court Reporter: The court does not provide a court reporter for civil trials and motions. The Court, in its discretion, may require a court reporter in any civil case. The court requires a court reporter in every civil case set for trial by jury, all bench trials scheduled for more than one day and in all contested domestic relations cases. In such cases, the moving party is to arrange for and ensure that a court reporter is present at all times for the trial. The court will determine at the final hearing how much, if any, reimbursement will be made to that party by the other party or parties.

IV. Discovery: The parties shall complete discovery, including depositions, by thirty days before trial; however, depositions taken in lieu of live testimony at trial will be permitted until fifteen days before trial. "Complete" means that all interrogatories, requests for production, requests for admissions, and other discovery must be served sufficiently in advance of trial to allow a timely response of at least thirty days before trial. Depositions may be taken after the specified time period by agreement of counsel of record or for good cause shown, provided however, that the taking of a deposition after the deadline established herein shall not provide a basis for continuance of the trial date or the scheduling of motions inconsistent with the normal procedures of the Court. The parties have a duty to seasonably supplement and amend discovery responses pursuant to Rule 4:1(e) of the Rules of the Supreme Court of Virginia. "Seasonably" means as soon as practical. No provision of this order supersedes the Rules of the Supreme Court of Virginia governing discovery. Any discovery motions filed shall contain a certification that counsel has made a good faith effort to resolve the matters set forth in the motion with opposing counsel.

V. Designation of Experts: If requested in discovery, plaintiff's, counter-claimant's, third-party plaintiff's, and cross-claimant's experts shall be identified on or before ninety days before trial. If requested in discovery, defendant's experts and all other opposing experts shall be identified on or before sixty days before trial. If requested in discovery, experts or opinions responsive to new matters raised in the opposing parties' identification of experts shall be designated no later than forty-five days before trial. If requested, all information discoverable under Rule 4:1(b)(4)(A)(1) of the Rules of the Supreme Court of Virginia shall be provided or the expert will not ordinarily be permitted to express any non-disclosed opinions at trial. The foregoing deadlines shall not relieve a party of the obligation to respond to discovery requests within the time periods set forth in the Rules of the Supreme Court of Virginia including, in particular, the duty to supplement or amend prior responses pursuant to Rule 4:1(e).

VI. Dispositive Motions: All dispositive motions shall be presented to the Court for hearing as far in advance of the trial date as practical. All counsel of record are encouraged to bring on for hearing all demurrers, special pleas, motions for summary judgment, or other dispositive motions not more than sixty days after being filed.

VII. Exhibits and Witness Lists: Counsel of record shall exchange fifteen days before trial a list specifically identifying each exhibit to be introduced at trial, copies of any exhibits not previously supplied in discovery, and a list of witnesses proposed to be introduced at trial. The lists of exhibits and witnesses shall be filed with the Clerk of the Court simultaneously therewith but the exhibits shall not then be filed. Any exhibit or witnesses not so identified and filed will not be received in evidence, except in rebuttal or for impeachment or unless the admission of such exhibit or testimony of the witness would cause no surprise or prejudice to the opposing party and the failure to list the exhibit or witness was through inadvertence. Any objections to exhibits or witnesses shall state the legal reasons therefore except on relevancy grounds, and shall be filed with the Clerk of the Court and a copy delivered to opposing counsel at least five days before trial or the objections will be deemed waived absent leave of Court for good cause shown.

VIII. Witness Subpoenas: Early filing of a request for witness subpoenas is encouraged so that such subpoenas may be served at least ten days before trial.

IX. Continuances: Continuances are discouraged and will only be granted by the Court for good cause shown. In the event of a continuance a new Pretrial Scheduling Order will be entered.

X. Motions in Limine: Counsel are encouraged to set motions in limine on a Friday Motion's Day as early as possible. Absent leave of Court, any motion in limine which required argument exceeding five minutes shall be filed the day of the Pretrial Conference. If not heard before the Pretrial Conference, the hearing will be set for at the Pretrial Conference.

XI. Jury Instructions: Counsel of record, unless compliance is waived by the Court, shall exchange proposed jury instructions two business days before a civil jury trial date. At the commencement of trial, counsel of record shall tender to the Court the originals of all citations. This requirement shall not preclude the offering of additional instructions at the trial.

XII. Deposition Transcripts to be Used at Trial: Counsel of record shall confer and attempt to identify and resolve all issues regarding the use of depositions at trial. It is the obligation of the proponent of any deposition of any non-party witness who will not appear at trial to advise opposing counsel of record of counsel's intent to use all or a portion of the deposition at trial at the earliest reasonable opportunity. It becomes the obligation of the opponent of any such deposition to bring any objection or other unresolved issues to the Court for hearing before day of trial.

XIII. Waiver or Modification of Terms or Order: Upon motion, the time limits and prohibitions contained in this order may be waived or modified by leave of Court for good cause shown.

- XI. Instructions: Counsel of record shall exchange proposed instructions by 5:00 pm on the last Thursday before trial. Any instructions from “Virginia Model Jury Instructions” (VMJI) may be identified by instruction number. Counsel for petitioner shall prepare and have available at the commencement of trial the originals of all agreed upon instructions. The following statement is not the law but is an interpretation of the law which is intended to assist those who must respond to this garnishment. You may rely on this only for general guidance because the law itself is the final word. (Read the law, § 34-29 of the Code of Virginia, for a full explanation. A copy of § 34-29 is available at the Clerk's office. If you do not understand the law, call a lawyer for help.)

An employer may take as much as 25 percent of an employee's disposable earnings to satisfy this garnishment. But if any employee makes the minimum wage or less for his week's earnings, the employee will ordinarily get to keep 40 times the minimum hourly wage.

But an employer may withhold a different amount of money from that above if:

- (1) The employee must pay child support or spousal support and was ordered to do so by a court procedure or other legal procedure. No more than 65 percent of an employee's earnings may be withheld for support;
- (2) Money is withheld by order of a bankruptcy court; or
- (3) Money is withheld for a tax debt.

"Disposable earnings" means the money an employee makes "after taxes" and after other amounts required by law to be withheld are satisfied. Earnings can be salary, hourly wages, commissions, bonuses, payments to an independent contractor, or otherwise, whether paid directly to the employee or not.

If an employee tries to transfer, assign or in any way give his earnings to another person to avoid the garnishment, it will not be legal; earnings are still earnings.

Financial institutions that receive an employee's paycheck by direct deposit do not have to determine what part of a person's earnings can be garnished.

DEPUTY CLERK

The following statement is not the law but is an interpretation of the law which is intended to assist those who must respond to this garnishment. You may rely on this only for general guidance because the law itself is the final word. (Read the law, § 34-29 of the Code of Virginia, for a full explanation. A copy of § 34-29 is available at the Clerk's office. If you do not understand the law, call a lawyer for help.)

An employer may take as much as 25 percent of an employee's disposable earnings to satisfy this garnishment. But if any employee makes the minimum wage or less for his week's earnings, the employee will ordinarily get to keep 40 times the minimum hourly wage.

But an employer may withhold a different amount of money from that above if:

- (1) The employee must pay child support or spousal support and was ordered to do so by a court procedure or other legal procedure. No more than 65 percent of an employee's earnings may be withheld for support;
- (2) Money is withheld by order of a bankruptcy court; or
- (3) Money is withheld for a tax debt.

"Disposable earnings" means the money an employee makes "after taxes" and after other amounts required by law to be withheld are satisfied. Earnings can be salary, hourly wages, commissions, bonuses, payments to an independent contractor, or otherwise, whether paid directly to the employee or not.

If an employee tries to transfer, assign or in any way give his earnings to another person to avoid the garnishment, it will not be legal; earnings are still earnings.

Financial institutions that receive an employee's paycheck by direct deposit do not have to determine what part of a person's earnings can be garnished.

GARNISHEE INFORMATION SHEET

Va. Code §§ 34-29 and 40.1-28.10

The following information sheet sets forth procedures which may apply when a garnishee determines the proper amount to be garnished.

I. Garnishment of monies other than earnings (wages, salaries, commissions):

Refer to the debt owed or property specified by the judgment creditor on the GARNISHMENT SUMMONS, and respond to garnishments based on the date shown on the GARNISHMENT SUMMONS as to when the writ of fieri facias was delivered to the sheriff.

Financial Institutions may respond to a GARNISHMENT SUMMONS on district court form DC-456, GARNISHEE'S ANSWER.

- If the account is a joint account, list the names and addresses of all account owners.
- Certain exemptions from garnishment, which are listed on district court form DC-454, NOTICE TO JUDGMENT DEBTOR HOW TO CLAIM EXEMPTIONS FROM GARNISHMENT AND LIEN, REQUEST FOR HEARING – GARNISHMENT/LIEN EXEMPTION CLAIM, attached to the GARNISHMENT SUMMONS, may apply.
- If the account contains federal benefit payments governed by 31 CFR Part 212, list the account balance and the protected amount.

II. Garnishment of earnings for each pay period:

First Step:

Determine what are the "disposable earnings" by calculating the gross earnings, then deducting from gross earnings those amounts required by law to be withheld, such as federal and state taxes and social security withholdings. In calculating disposable earnings, do not deduct other payroll deductions such as insurance premiums, savings plans or retirement contributions.

Second Step:

Determine the maximum amount that may be withheld from "disposable earnings." A description of this calculation is provided on the back of the attached GARNISHMENT SUMMONS. The following is a way to implement this part of the procedure:

On the front of the GARNISHMENT SUMMONS under "Maximum Amount of Disposable Earnings Subject to Garnishment," see which boxes have been checked to calculate the maximum amount subject to garnishment.

- If support is checked, then multiply "disposable earnings" by the percentage checked underneath "support." If no box is checked, then use 50%.
- If "state taxes" is checked, then multiply "disposable earnings" by 100%.
- If none of the boxes are checked, use the table on the reverse side and, where a percentage is given, multiply "disposable earnings" by the applicable percentage.

Third Step:

Determine if other deductions for child support or other garnishments apply to the judgment debtor. Virginia law requires that payments for support ordered by a court or by the Division of Child Support Enforcement must be deducted from the maximum amount of disposable earnings subject to garnishment as calculated above in the Second Step to determine the amount left for garnishments. (There may be none left.) After honoring child support deductions, garnishments are to be honored on the basis of the date shown on the GARNISHMENT SUMMONS as to when the writ of fieri facias was delivered to the sheriff.

III. File any GARNISHEE'S ANSWER so that the court receives your answer before the return date shown on the GARNISHMENT SUMMONS. The attached GARNISHEE'S ANSWER may be used for this purpose. If you deliver payment to the court by check, make it payable to the judgment creditor.

IV. Do not withhold funds from this garnishment after the hearing date and time specified in the top right hand corner of the GARNISHMENT SUMMONS, district court form DC-451. Any funds withheld as a result of a voluntary agreement between the judgment creditor and the judgment debtor after this garnishment has been concluded should be paid directly to the judgment creditor. Do not send these funds to the court.

NOTICE TO JUDGMENT DEBTOR HOW TO CLAIM EXEMPTIONS FROM GARNISHMENT AND LIEN

The attached Summons in Garnishment or Notice of Lien has been issued on request of a creditor who holds a judgment against you. The Summons may cause your property or wages to be held or taken to pay the judgment.

The law provides that certain property and wages cannot be taken in garnishment. Such property is said to be exempted. A summary of some of the major exemptions is set forth in the request for hearing form. There is no exemption solely because you are having difficulty paying your debts.

If you claim an exemption, you should (i) fill out the claim for exemption form and (ii) deliver or mail the form to the clerk's office of this court.

You have a right to a hearing within seven business days from the date you file your claim with the court. If the creditor is asking that your wages be withheld, the method of computing the amount of wages that are exempt from garnishment by law is indicated on the Summons in Garnishment attached. You do not need to file a claim for exemption to receive this exemption, but if you believe the wrong amount is being withheld, you may file a claim for exemption.

On the day of the hearing, you should come to court ready to explain why your property is exempted, and you should bring any documents that may help you prove your case. If you do not come to court at the designated time and prove that your property is exempt, you may lose some of your rights.

If you do not claim an exemption and do not otherwise contest the garnishment, you are not required to appear in court on the return date on the Garnishment Summons.

It may be helpful for you to seek the advice of an attorney in this matter.

THE REQUEST FOR HEARING FORM IS PRINTED ON THE REVERSE OF THIS FORM.

This allows the Sheriff either to take or to “levy upon” (make a list of) certain property in your possession for future sale.

The law provides that some types of property and funds (including some wages) cannot be taken by legal process. Such property is exempt. The Sheriff may not take or “levy on” certain property (§§ 34-26 and 34-27 of the Code of Virginia). Some of these items are:

The family Bible; wedding and engagement rings; family portraits and family heirlooms not to exceed $5,000 in value; a lot in a burial ground; all wearing apparel of the householder not to exceed $1,000 in value; all household furnishings including, but not limited to, beds, dressers, floor coverings, stoves, refrigerators, washing machines, dryers, sewing machines, pots and pans for cooking, plates, and eating utensils, not to exceed $5,000 in value; firearms, not to exceed a total of $3,000 in value; all animals owned as pets, such as cats, dogs, birds, squirrels, rabbits and other pets not kept or raised for sale or profit; medically prescribed health aids; tools, books, instruments, implements, equipment and machines, including motor vehicles, vessels, and aircraft, which are necessary for use in the course of the householder’s occupation or trade not exceeding $10,000 in value, except that a perfected security interest on such personal property shall have priority over the claim of exemption under this part (“occupation,” includes enrollment in any public or private elementary, secondary, or vocational school or institution of higher education); motor vehicles, not held as exempt as necessary for use in the course of the householder’s occupation or trade owned by the householder, not to exceed a total of $6,000 in value, except that a perfected security interest on a motor vehicle shall have priority over the claim of exemption under this part; those portions of a tax refund or government payment attributable to the Child Tax Credit or Additional Child Tax Credit pursuant to § 24 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the Earned Income Credit pursuant to § 32 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended; unpaid spousal or child support.

The value of an item claimed as exempt shall be the fair market value of the item less any prior security interest. The monetary limits, where provided, are applicable to the total value of property claimed as exempt.

Exemptions which may apply are listed on the other side of this form and the items listed above can be claimed under No. 12. Please read these carefully.

If you believe that any of your property that the Sheriff wants to take or “levy upon” is exempt, you should tell the Sheriff the property that you believe is exempt and which exemption applies. You should also identify any property which belongs to someone else and who is the owner of such property. A false statement may be punished as contempt under §18.2-456(5) of the Code of Virginia.

If the Sheriff “levies on” or takes property that you believe is exempt, you should promptly (i) fill out the REQUEST FOR HEARING—EXEMPTION CLAIM form and (ii) deliver or mail the form to the clerk’s office of this court. If the attached paper is an Attachment Summons, you have the right to a prompt hearing within ten business days from the date that you file your request for a hearing with the court. In all other cases, you must ask for a prompt hearing before the “Return Date” on the attached papers. If the attached paper is a Writ of Fieri Facias, the property may be sold by the Sheriff before the “Return Date;” therefore, if you wish to claim an exemption, you should ask immediately for a prompt hearing on your claim. At a prompt hearing, the only thing that you may do is explain why your property is exempt. If you do not come to court on the date and at the time set and prove that your property is exempt, you may lose some of your rights regarding your property.

If the Sheriff takes your property, you may post a bond to recover your property; however, once you post a bond, the creditor may post a bond to have the property kept from you. If you retain possession of any property “levied on,” it is your responsibility not to sell, damage, or otherwise dispose of such property “levied on” until the proceedings are finished.

If the attached paper is an Attachment Summons, a Warrant of Distress, an Order of Seizure in Distress, a Warrant in Detinue or an Order for Detinue Seizure, no judgment has been entered against you yet. On the “Return Date” shown on the attached paper, your case will be tried or scheduled for trial. At that time, you may tell the judge any defenses you may have to the creditor’s claims.

It may be helpful to you to promptly seek the advice of an attorney regarding this and other exemption rights.

THE REQUEST FOR HEARING—EXEMPTION CLAIM FORM IS PRINTED ON THE OTHER SIDE.

DOMESTIC CASE PRETRIAL SCHEDULING ORDER

In an effort to promote the orderly and efficient presentation of evidence in cases involving contested divorce, spousal support, custody, visitation, child support and equitable distribution the Court hereby ORDERS:

I. Trial: The trial is scheduled to begin on _____ at 10:00 AM without a jury for _____ day(s) based on the estimate of the parties. Every effort should be made to complete the trial in the number of days scheduled. Trials that go over the estimated time and require additional days may have to be continued several weeks or months to complete the hearing due to the status of the Court's docket. Counsel of record ("Counsel")¹ and pro se parties are to read this Court's Guidelines applicable to all aspects of this case.

II. Pretrial Conference: A Pretrial Conference is scheduled for Thursday, _____ at 1:00 p.m. (The Pretrial Conference is to be scheduled for no more than 3 weeks before trial.) Counsel and pro se parties must attend, absent undue hardship and prior approval of a Judge of this Court. The Pretrial Conference will be conducted in accordance with Rule 4:13 of the Rules of the Supreme Court of Virginia.¹ Counsel shall be prepared to address the items listed in Rule 4:13. Motions will not be heard at the Pretrial Conference, unless approved by the Judge conducting the pretrial hearing.

¹ Pursuant to Rule 1:5, the term "counsel of record" shall include parties who have signed a pleading or who have notified the other parties and the clerk in writing that he or she appears in the case, or have endorsed a draft order of the court as provided in Rule 1:13.

III. Court Reporter: For all cases involving contested grounds of divorce, custody, visitation, child support, spousal support and/or equitable distribution, the moving party is to arrange for and ensure that a court reporter is present at all times for the trial. That party shall be responsible for payment of the costs of the court reporter and the court will determine at the final hearing how much, if any, reimbursement will be made to that party.

IV. Discovery: The parties shall complete discovery, including depositions, by thirty (30) days before trial; however, depositions taken in lieu of live testimony at trial will be permitted until fifteen (15) days before trial. “Complete” means that all interrogatories, requests for production, requests for admissions, and other discovery must be served sufficiently in advance of trial to allow a timely response at least thirty (30) days before trial. Depositions may be taken after the specified time period by agreement of counsel of record or for good cause shown, provided however, that the taking of a deposition after the deadline established herein shall not provide a basis for continuance of the trial date or the scheduling of motions inconsistent with the normal procedures of the Court. The parties have a duty to seasonably supplement and amend discovery responses pursuant to Rule 4:1(e) of the Rules of the Supreme Court of Virginia. “Seasonably” means as soon as practical. No provision of this order supersedes the Rules of the Supreme Court of Virginia governing discovery. Any discovery motions filed shall contain a certification that counsel has made a good faith effort to resolve the matters set forth in the motion with opposing counsel.

V. Designation of Experts: If requested in discovery, each party’s experts shall be identified on or before sixty (60) days before trial. If requested in discovery, experts or opinions responsive to matters raised in the opposing party’s identification of experts (counter-experts) shall be designated no later than thirty (30) days before trial. If requested, all information discoverable under Rule 4:1(b)(4)(A)(i) of the Rules of the Supreme Court of Virginia shall be provided or the expert will not ordinarily be permitted to express any non-disclosed opinions at trial. The foregoing deadlines shall not relieve a party of the obligation to respond to discovery requests within the time periods set forth in the Rules of the Supreme Court of Virginia including, in particular, the duty to supplement or amend prior responses pursuant to Rule 4:1(e).

VI. Dispositive Motions: All dispositive motions including, but not limited to demurrers, pleas in bar, are to be resolved before a case is set for trial. By setting this case for trial counsel and pro se parties represent that all dispositive motions have been resolved. If any dispositive motions or pleas remain unresolved at the time of the Pretrial Conference the case may be removed from the trial docket and a hearing scheduled for the dispositive motions or pleas.

VII. Exhibits and Witness Lists: Counsel of record shall exchange fifteen (15) days before trial a list specifically identifying each exhibit to be introduced at trial, copies of any exhibits not previously supplied in discovery, and a list of witnesses proposed to testify at trial. The lists of exhibits and witnesses shall be filed with the Clerk of the Court simultaneously therewith, but the exhibits shall not then be filed. Any exhibit or witnesses not so identified and filed will not be received in evidence, except in rebuttal or for impeachment or unless the admission of such exhibit or testimony of the witness would cause no surprise or prejudice to the opposing party and the failure to list the exhibit or witness was through inadvertence. Any objections to exhibits or witnesses shall state the legal reasons therefor except on relevancy grounds, and shall be filed with the Clerk of the Court and a copy delivered to opposing counsel or pro se party at least five (5) days before trial or the objections will be deemed waived, absent leave of Court for good cause shown.

VIII. Motions in Limine/Pretrial Motions: Counsel are encouraged to set motions in limine and other pretrial motions on a Friday Motions Day as early as possible. Absent leave of Court, any motion in limine which requires argument exceeding five minutes shall be filed before the day of the Pretrial Conference and if not heard in accordance with the normal motions procedures of the Court before that Pretrial Conference, shall be scheduled for hearing at that time.

IX. Witness Subpoenas: Early filing of a request for witness subpoenas is encouraged so that such subpoenas may be served at least ten (10) days before trial.

X. Continuances: Continuances are discouraged and will only be granted by the Court for good cause shown. In the event of a continuance, a new pretrial order will be entered.

XI. Deposition Transcripts to be Used at Trial: Counsel of record shall confer and attempt to identify and resolve all issues regarding the use of depositions at trial. It is the obligation of the proponent of any deposition of any non-party witness who will not appear at trial to advise opposing counsel of record of counsel's intent to use all or a portion of the deposition at trial at the earliest reasonable opportunity. It becomes the obligation of the opponent of any such deposition to bring any objection or other unresolved issues to the Court for hearing before the day of trial. The party putting the deposition testimony in evidence must make the necessary provisions for someone to read the transcript in Court.

XII. Waiver or Modification of Terms or Order: Upon motion, the time limits and prohibitions contained in this order may be waived or modified by leave of Court for good cause shown; however, if both parties are represented by counsel, attorneys may change the schedule by up to seven (7) days by written agreement.

XII. Equitable Distribution:

A) At least fifteen (15) days prior to trial the parties shall file with the Court and deliver to the opposing counsel or pro se party the schedules which are applicable to the case from the list below. Each schedule shall be signed by counsel or the pro se party submitting it. The schedules shall be in spreadsheet or chart format and shall include all necessary information for the Court to decide all issues of equitable distribution for each type of asset. The parties are encouraged to file joint schedules if they are in agreement.

B) Objections to Schedules: Within ten (10) days of receiving the other party's schedules, a party shall file with the Court and opposing counsel or pro se party all applicable schedules setting forth any and all additions, objections or amendments to the schedules of the other party. Each schedule shall be signed by counsel or pro se party submitting it, and a copy of each schedule shall be furnished to opposing counsel or pro se party, at or before the time of filing with the Court.

List of Schedules

- 1. Personal Information Schedule and Factors for Equitable Distribution
- 2. Real and Personal Property Schedule
- 3. Business Property Schedule
- 4. Securities Investment Portfolio Schedule
- 5. Retirement Funds Schedule
- 6. Pension Schedule
- 7. Debt Schedule
- 8. Summary Schedule

XIV. Conference: Counsel and/or pro se parties are ordered to confer at least five (5) days prior to trial in an effort to resolve issues as they are able, to agree upon stipulations of evidence and to agree upon what questions of law and fact are actually in issue.

XV. Educational Seminar: In any case where a child whose custody, visitation, or support is contested, each party shall show proof by the date of the Pretrial Conference, that they have attended within the 12 months prior to their court appearance or they shall attend within 45 days thereafter an educational seminar or other like program conducted by a qualified person or organization approved by the Court. The seminar or other program shall be a minimum of four hours in length and shall address the effects of separation or divorce on children, parenting responsibilities, options for conflict resolution and financial responsibilities (See Va. Code 20-103). Approved providers are listed on the Virginia Supreme Court's website at <http://webdev.courts.state.va.us/cgi-bin/parented/providers.cgi/g?153J>

XVI. Guardians Ad Litem: Guardians Ad Litem appointed by this Court may propound discovery on behalf of their ward(s) but are not subject to discovery propounded against them. If a Guardian Ad Litem intends to designate an expert witness, they shall have the same duties and obligations as counsel of record to comply with Paragraph V (Designation of Experts) of this Order, notwithstanding the lack of discovery propounded against them. They shall also comply with the deadlines set forth in Paragraph VII (Exhibits and Witness Lists), and Paragraph XV (Conference) of this Order.

XVII. Interpreters: Interpreter requests shall be filed in writing with the Clerk at least fourteen (14) days in advance of trial.

STANDING ORDER ESTABLISHING PROCEDURES
FOR ENTRY OF PRETRIAL SCHEDULING ORDERS
AND SETTING PRETRIAL CONFERENCES IN CERTAIN CASES

In an effort to more efficiently manage the trial docket it is hereby ORDERED that contemporaneously with setting the trial date a Pretrial Scheduling Order shall be entered pursuant to Rule 1:18 in every civil case set for trial by jury and in all contested domestic relations cases. In addition, a Pretrial Conference to be held pursuant to Rules 1:19 and 4:13 will be scheduled all such cases at the time the Pretrial Scheduling Order is entered. A Pretrial Scheduling Order may be entered and a Pretrial Conference may be scheduled in any other case in the discretion of the court. Contested domestic relations cases include, but are not limited to, all cases involving contested grounds of divorce, custody, visitation, child support, spousal support and/or equitable distribution, including any such cases appealed to this court. The Pretrial Conference shall be held approximately 30 to 45 days before the trial.

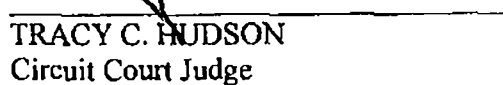

The following rules apply to all Pretrial Conferences: All counsel shall attend the Pretrial Conference in person unless excused for hardship by a judge of this court. THIS MATTER having come before the Court upon the parties' agreement to enter an Order for Discovery and Reciprocal Discovery pursuant to VA Rule 3A:11,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AS FOLLOWS:

I. DISCOVERY OBLIGATIONS OF THE COMMONWEALTH:

A. The Commonwealth is HEREBY ORDERED to comply with the following discovery obligations no later than Sixty (60) days after the entry of this Order:

1. To permit the accused to inspect and review any relevant reports prepared by law enforcement officers and made in connection with the particular case, including any written witness statements or written summaries of oral statements contained within such reports, that are known to the Commonwealth's attorney to be in the possession, custody or control of the Commonwealth.

2. To permit the accused to inspect, review, and copy or photograph any relevant:
a. Written or recorded statements or confessions, or the substance of any oral statements or confessions, made by the accused to any law enforcement officer, that are known to the Commonwealth's attorney to be within the possession, custody or control of the Commonwealth;

b. Written or recorded statements or confessions, or the substance of any oral statements or confessions, made by the accused to any person other than a law enforcement officer, that the Commonwealth intends to introduce into evidence against the accused at trial;

c. Written or recorded statements, or the substance of any oral statements, made by a co-defendant or co-conspirator that the Commonwealth intends to introduce into evidence against the accused at trial; and

d. Written reports of autopsy examinations, ballistic tests, fingerprint analyses, handwriting analyses, blood, urine and breath tests, other scientific reports, and written reports of a physical or mental examination of the accused or the alleged victim made in connection with the particular case, that are known by the Commonwealth's attorney to be within the possession, custody, or control of the Commonwealth.

3. To permit the accused to inspect, review, and copy or photograph designated books, papers, documents, tangible objects, recordings, buildings or places, or copies or portions thereof, that are known by the Commonwealth's attorney to be within the possession, custody, or control of the Commonwealth, upon a showing that the items sought may be material to preparation of the accused's defense and that the request is reasonable.

4. To permit the accused to inspect or review the accused's prior criminal record, if any, as is within the possession, custody, or control of the Commonwealth, the existence of which is known, or by the exercise of due diligence may become known to the attorney for the Commonwealth.

B. Special Provisions:

1. Confidential Informants: This Order does not authorize the discovery of the names and/or personal identifying information of confidential informants whom the Commonwealth does not intend to call at trial and with regard to whose identity the Commonwealth asserts it holds a privilege. Notwithstanding, the Court may order that the identity of the informant be disclosed upon a showing by the defendant that such disclosure is relevant and helpful to the defense of the accused.

2. Work Product: This Order does not authorize the discovery or inspection of the work product of the Commonwealth's Attorney, including internal reports, witness statements, memoranda, correspondence, legal research or other internal documents prepared by the Office of the Commonwealth's Attorney or its agents in anticipation of trial.

3. Redaction: With regard to any material or evidence provided by the Commonwealth pursuant to this Order, the Commonwealth may make redactions of personal identifying information as authorized by VA Rule 3A:11(c)(1)(A).

4. Restricted Dissemination Material: The Commonwealth may designate evidence or material disclosed pursuant to this Order as "Restricted Dissemination Material" by prominently marking such items as "Restricted Dissemination Material" (hereinafter "RDM") in accordance with VA Rule 3A:11 (c)(2).

a. "RDM" Designation by Defense Agreement: The Commonwealth may designate any evidence or material subject to disclosure pursuant to this Order as "RDM," without supporting certification, if the accused's attorney agrees to the designation.

b. "RDM" Designation by Commonwealth Certification: In the absence of an agreement by the attorney for the accused, the Commonwealth may designate any evidence or material as "RDM" by stamping or otherwise marking it as such and providing a certification in writing, upon information and belief, that: (1) the designated material relates to the statement of a child victim or witness; or (2) disclosure of the designated material may result in danger to the safety or security of a witness or victim, danger of a witness being intimidated or tampered with, or a risk of compromising an ongoing criminal investigation or confidential law enforcement technique.

II. DISCOVERY OBLIGATIONS OF THE DEFENDANT

A. The Defendant is HEREBY ORDERED to provide the following discovery to the Commonwealth's Attorney no later than Sixty (60) days before trial:

1. To permit the Commonwealth to inspect and copy or photograph any written reports of autopsy examinations, ballistic tests, fingerprint analyses, handwriting analyses, blood, urine and breath analyses, and other scientific testing with the accused's possession, custody or control that the defense intends to proffer or introduce into evidence at trial or sentencing.

2. To disclose to the Commonwealth whether the accused intends to introduce evidence to establish an alibi and, if so, disclose to the Commonwealth the place at which the accused claims to have been at the time the alleged offense was committed.

3. To permit the Commonwealth to inspect, copy or photograph any written reports of physical or mental examination of the accused made in connection with the particular case if the accused intends to rely upon the defense of insanity pursuant to Chapter 11 of Title 19.2 of the Code of Virginia; provided that no statement made by the accused in the course of such an examination disclosed pursuant to this Order shall be used by the Commonwealth in its case-in-chief, whether the examination was conducted with or without the consent of the accused.

B. Special Provisions:

1. Defense Objection to Redaction: If the Commonwealth redacts personal identifying information with regard to any material or evidence provided pursuant to this Order and as authorized by VA Rule 3A:11(c), the accused may file a motion seeking disclosure of the redacted information. Should the Court find good cause for disclosure, it may order the Commonwealth to provide the redacted information, or in its discretion, may order that this redacted information be instead identified as "Restricted Dissemination Material" pursuant to VA Rule 3A:11(c)(2).

2. Restricted Dissemination Material ("RDM"):

a. Responsibilities of Defense Counsel: Except as otherwise provided by Order of this Court, "RDM" provided by the Commonwealth pursuant to this Order, may only be disclosed to the accused's attorney, the agents or employees of the accused's attorney, or to an expert witness. The accused's attorney may orally communicate the content of "RDM" to the accused or allow the accused to view the content of such material but shall not provide the accused with copies of material so designated. "RDM" may not otherwise be reproduced, copied or disseminated in any way. Furthermore, within Twenty-One (21) days of the entry of a final order by the trial court, or upon the termination of the representation of the accused, the accused's attorney shall return to the Court all originals and copies of any "RDM" disclosed pursuant to this Order. The Court shall maintain such "RDM" under seal. Any material sealed pursuant to this subsection shall remain available for inspection by counsel of record. For good cause shown, the Court may enter an order allowing additional access to the sealed material as the court in its discretion deems appropriate.

b. Defense Objection to Commonwealth's Designation as "RDM": If the Commonwealth designates evidence or material as "RDM" pursuant to VA Rule 3A:11(c)(2)(B), the accused may at any time file a motion seeking to remove this designation. Should the Court find good cause to remove the designation, it may order that the evidence or material no longer be designated as "RDM."

III. MUTUAL DISCOVERY OBLIGATIONS

A. Expert Opinion Testimony

1. Notice Requirements: If the Commonwealth's Attorney and/or the Defendant intends to introduce expert opinion testimony at trial or sentencing, the party seeking to introduce such expert testimony shall provide, no later than Sixty (60) days before the trial date, written notice of such intent to the opposing party and shall provide such opposing party with:

- a. any written report of the expert witness setting forth the witness's opinions and the bases and reasons for those opinions, or, if there is no such report, a written summary of the expected expert testimony setting forth the witness's opinions and the bases and reasons for those opinions; and
- b. the witness's qualifications and contact information.

2. Exception for Certificates of Analysis: Pursuant to VA Rule 3A:11, providing the opposing party with a copy of a certificate of analysis from the Virginia Department of Forensic Science or any other agency listed in Virginia Code §19.2-187, signed by hand or by electronic means by the person performing the analysis or examination, shall satisfy the requirements of this Order.

3. Exception for Rebuttal Experts: If a party intends to introduce expert opinion testimony at trial or sentencing which is in response to an expert that has been noticed by the opposing party in compliance with this Order, then the party seeking to introduce such rebuttal expert testimony shall provide to the opposing party these written disclosure requirements listed hereinabove no later than Thirty (30) days before the trial date.

4. Admissibility: Nothing in this Order shall render inadmissible an expert witness's testimony at the trial or sentencing further explaining the opinions, bases and reasons disclosed pursuant to this Order, or the expert witness's qualifications, just because the further explanatory language was not included in the notice and disclosure provided under this Order. All matters of admissibility shall be within the sound discretion of the court.

B. List of Witnesses:

No later than Thirty (30) days before the trial date, each party shall provide the opposing party with a list of the names and, if known to the party seeking to call the person as a witness, the addresses of all persons who are expected to testify on behalf of that party at trial or sentencing. For the Commonwealth, this requirement is subject to any redactions as permitted by VA Rule 3A:11 (c)(1), and for both parties, this requirement is subject to any Protective Order(s) as entered pursuant to VA Rule 3A:11(g).

IV. GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. If after the entry of this Order, the accused at any point thereafter is permitted by this Court to proceed with his/her case pro se, the Commonwealth may file a motion with this Court to amend this Order seeking to limit the scope of discovery as the Court deems appropriate.

2. The Commonwealth shall abide by all constitutional and statutory duties of the Commonwealth's Attorney to provide exculpatory and/or impeachment evidence to the accused.

3. A party to this Order may satisfy the requirement to permit the opposing party to inspect and copy or photograph a document, recorded statement or recorded confession by providing an actual duplicate, facsimile or copy of the document.

4. Any material or evidence disclosed or discovered pursuant to this Order and filed with the Clerk of Court shall be placed under seal until it is either admitted as an exhibit at a trial or hearing or the Court enters an order unsealing the specified material or evidence.

5. Upon the motion of either party and for good cause, this Court may enter a Protective Order in accordance with VA Rule 3A:11(g) with regard to the discovery or inspection required by this Order, and in its discretion may order any condition that it deems necessary to the orderly adjudication of the case or to the fair administration of justice.

6. That this Order is continuing in nature as set forth in VA Rule 3A:11(h). Both parties shall exercise due diligence to comply with their respective discovery obligations within the timeframes as proscribed by this Order. However, for good cause shown or upon a material change in circumstances, either party may move the Court to amend or modify the discovery deadlines as initially set forth by this Order. Furthermore, if at any time before or during trial, a party discovers the existence of additional material that is subject to discovery under this Order, but which has not been previously disclosed to the opposing party, that party shall promptly notify the opposing party of the existence of the additional material. If at any time during the pendency of the case it is brought to the attention of the Court that a party has failed to comply with VA Rule 3A:11 or with this Order, the Court shall order such party to permit the discovery or inspection of materials not previously disclosed and may grant such other relief authorized by Virginia law as it may in its discretion deem appropriate.

My lawyer has discussed with me the nature of the charge and has advised me as to any possible defenses I might have in this case. I have had ample time to discuss the case and all possible defenses with my lawyer.
4. My lawyer has advised me that the punishment which the law provides is as follows:
A maximum of _____ years imprisonment (and a minimum of _____ year(s) imprisonment), or in the discretion of the jury or the Judge sitting without a jury, up to _____ months in jail and a fine of $_____; also that probation may or may not be granted; and that if I plead guilty to more than one offense, the Court may order the sentences to be served consecutively, that is, one after another.
5. I understand that I may, if I so choose, plead "NOT GUILTY" to any charge against me, and if I do plead "NOT GUILTY" the Constitution guarantees me (a) the right to a speedy and public trial by jury; (b) the process of the Court to compel the production of any evidence and the attendance of witnesses in my behalf; (c) the right to have the assistance of a lawyer at all stages of the proceedings; and (d) the right against self-incrimination.

I have had ample time to discuss the case and all possible defenses with my lawyer.
4. My lawyer has advised me that the punishment which the law provides is as follows:
A maximum of ____ year(s) imprisonment (and a minimum of ____ year(s) imprisonment) or in the discretion of the jury or the Judge sitting without a jury, up to ____ months in jail and a fine of $____; also that probation may or may not be granted; and that if I plead guilty to more than one offense, the Court may order the sentences to be served consecutively, that is, one after another.
5. I understand that I may, if I so choose, plead "NOT GUILTY" to any charge against me, and if I do plead "NOT GUILTY" the Constitution guarantees me (a) the right to a speedy and public trial by jury; (b) the process of the Court to compel the production of any evidence and the attendance of witnesses in my behalf; (c) the right to have the assistance of a lawyer at all stages of the proceedings; and (d) the right against self-incrimination.
6. I understand that by pleading guilty that I waive my right to an appeal; and that I am pleading guilty because it is in my interest to do so; and that I enter this plea voluntarily, knowingly and understandingly.
7. The parties have agreed to recommend the following punishment to the Court:

8. I understand that notwithstanding any recommendation as to punishment, the Court may or may not follow the recommendation and may impose any sentence within the limits set forth above in Paragraph 4. In the event that the Court does not accept such recommendation, I have been advised and understand that I have no right to withdraw my plea of guilty.
9. I am entering a plea of guilty in this case because it is in my best interest to do so. I am aware of the Commonwealth's evidence against me, and I acknowledge that the evidence is sufficient to convict me. By pleading guilty, I agree that I am giving up or waiving the following rights: (a) my right to a trial by jury; (b) my right to an appeal; (c) my right to confront and cross-examine my accusers; and (d) my right not to incriminate myself.

10. I declare no officer or employee of the State or County or Commonwealth's Attorney's Office, or anyone else, has made any promises to me that I would receive a lighter sentence or probation if I would plead guilty.
11. I understand that if I am not a citizen of the United States and that if I plead guilty or I am found to be guilty, there may be consequences of deportation, exclusion from admission into the United States, or denial of naturalization pursuant to the laws of the United States.
12. My lawyer and I have discussed the Virginia Sentencing Guidelines (Guidelines). I agree that the calculation or result arrived at by my lawyer is based on his/her best efforts and available information. I understand that if the Guidelines calculation that the Court accepts differs from the calculation that my lawyer and I arrived at, I will not have the right or opportunity to withdraw my plea of guilty.
